The Right to Abortion

A Psychiatric View

Group for the Advancement of Psychiatry, Committee on Psychiatry and Law

A timely report in which distinguished psychiatrists analyze abortion from social, ethical, and legal viewpoints and conclude that "abortion when performed by a licensed physician should be entirely removed from the domain of criminal law."

"A significant contribution . . . logical and magnificently succinct. Almost any reader must agree with its conclusions and recommendations."

—ALAN F. GUTTMACHER, M.D., President, Planned Parenthood-World Population

"A most valuable addition to mounting evidence that the state violates constitutional law and human rights by dictating to a woman whether or not she should bear an unwanted child."

—MARYA MANNES

"A thoughtful, professional discussion of a badly needed reform in the law."

—ARTHUR E. SUTHERLAND, Professor of Law, Harvard University Law School

*CARRETT HARDIN, Professor of Human Ecology, University of California, Santa Barbara
