The Annual Dickinson reunion was held Aug 12. 1922 at the home of Howard B. Dickinson. The committee on arrangements evidently had failed to propitiate the weather man for it rained all day. However the picnickers duly arrived in real picnic spirit. Tables were set in the dining room and an excellent dinner was enjoyed by all. In spite of the rain the sportsmen of the party donned rubbers & armed with umbrellas engaged in a spirited game of croquet, after which indoor sports were enjoyed.

The annual Dickinson picnic was held July 25 1925. at Maplewood Farm. There were 26 present, the largest number for many years. This number included quite a group of new participants. Dinner was served under the maples. After the "eat" a ball game was staged in the South lot which was attended and enjoyed by all. All stayed for supper which was followed by an evening of singing + general sociability.
