Hale, Wellington F 1906 [Clipping] Death of W F Hale [In pencil: Jan 31, 06] End Came Today Following a Few Days' Illness from Pneumonia. From Wednesday's Citizen. Wellington F Hale, a well known resident of John Street, died at his home this morning at 2 o'clock of pneumonia after a brief illness. Mr Hale attended the funeral of his cousin last Friday and complained then of not feeling well. He was born in Tolland, Mass., in March, 1844, and resided in that town all his life until his removal to Winsted five years ago last fall. For some time past Mr Hale had been sexton of the Second Congregational Church and janitor of the Hurlburt National bank, which positions he filled very satisfactorily. He was always industrious, working quietly but faithfully and winning the respect and esteem of all his acquaintances. Before his removal to Winsted he was a member of the Congregational church at Tolland. The bereaved family has the tender sympathy of their many friends. Mr Hale was twice married. His first wife, Georgia Marshall, died 22 years ago and he next married his wife's niece, Harriet Marshall, on March 12, 1886, who survives him with three children, Frances E Hale, daughter by his first wife; Charles W of Waterbury and Merton who lives at home here. A brother George Hale, was a member of Co. F, 27th Mass. Vol. infantry and was shot while in the service at Roanoke island. The funeral will be held at the Second Congregational chapel Saturday at 2 PM, Rev N M Calhoun officiating. Burial will be at the South cemetery;
