It is with regrets I inform you of the recent deaths of James O. Rose; Mark Andrews; David Kellogg; Henry Winchell.

Also of the extremely serious condition of Elmer E. Smith.

The entire town-ship are suffering with grip in various formes.

The outlook for the consolidating of the two Churches is rather remote. Much information may be gained on the subject as far as the Baptist are concerned, by a short personal interview with Dea. Carpenter.

Very truly yours,
