THE MAIN BUILDING

In this building we find the departments of Modern Languages, Economics, History and Mathematics. On the second floor is the chapel, seating some four hundred people. The various literary societies have their rooms on the third floor where for many years public speakers have striven to develop their talents.

LIBRARY

It is in this building that the offices of the college administration are located. The entire first floor is used in this manner, while the second floor houses the finest library in the entire state. Aside from the regular books used in all lines of college research work, this library contains many hundreds of very old volumes, interesting on account of their age.

BOYLE-HUMPHREY GYMNASIUM

Famous all over the Blue Grass as not only the scene of many basket ball struggles but also as the place where all of the Centre College dances are held. It is here that all of the football equipment is kept, and the offices of the athletic coaches are located.

BRECKINRIDGE HALL

"Breck Hall", as this building is known among the members of the student body, is located upon the campus very close to the various class rooms. Here we find a well equipped men's dormitory and those who spent their college days in "Breck" ever remember the friendships which began there and which were always cherished.

OLD CENTRE.

Looking over the board expanse of campus with its many spreading maples stands "Old Centre". A monument to the builders of another century, it has withstood the ravages of time for over one hundred years and stands today as a symbol of the spirit which has made Centre College the great institution that it is.

A decorative rectangular border with a repeating floral or leaf-like pattern surrounds the title.

BENJAMIN WOODBURY CREGOR

Springfield High School; Beta Theta Pi; "C" in Football '18, '19, '20, '21, '22; "C" in Baseball '19, '20, '21, '22; Social Committee '20-'21; Deinologian Literary Society; Carnival Committee '21-'22; President Senior Class '22; King of the Eighteenth Annual Carnival '23.

"BALDY"

The Duke of Springfield just couldn't resist the old urge and tho he stepped out with an A. B. last year, he bobbed up again about the middle of September with his old football togs and Centre supporters heaved a sigh of relief upon hearing that Ben was a candidate for an M. A. degree and that he would be eligible for football.

"Baldy" has been one of the greatest linemen ever developed at Centre, having received honorable mention from several great sport writers of the country in selecting their All-American teams. He has also been a mainstay on the diamond and it seems altogether fitting that this stellar athlete should be chosen for the highest athletics honor Centre can bestow—King of her Annual June Carnival.

It might also be in order at this point to state for the benefit of the ladies and whomever else it may concern that the "Sheik" will return again next year in the capacity of athletic director and we rejoice in the knowledge that, altho the classic halls and ancient athletic arenas of Centre will mourn his loss, we shall still be entranced by the radiant dome, the immaculate attire, and the vampish smile.

YOUNG HALL

This hall, together with the equipment contained therein, is a building of which Centre may well be proud. Here the classes in Physics, Biology and Chemistry find ample resources for all phases of their study. There is a friendly spirit of good-fellowship existing in the ranks of the "Scientists" which makes the work done in this building very pleasant.

SAMUEL BASKET BAYNE

Shelbyville, Ky.

Assistant in English.

"Sam" is at the head of the list of "greater sheiks" of our noble class. He strayed from our fold some several years ago but had a change of heart and returned to receive his degree at "Old Centre".

We don't know just what "Sam" has in mind to devote his talents to in the near future but we know that we need not worry about his success if he "carries on" as he has started. Dr. Wise says the sun revolves around "Sam" and we all say "luck to you".

PAUL J. BICKEL

Louisville Male High School;
Friendship Council;
Sigma Chi Fraternity;
Louisville Club.

"Paul." During his stay at Centre, Paul has in his quiet way been a great business man for by his frequent trips to Louisville he has acquired a half interest in the Southern Railroad. He likewise owns part of Stout's theatre. Out in the world he will doubtless pave his way to success. We expect great things of Paul and hope that he will send us a bid to his wedding. Who knows what the future holds in store?

"Toad", as he is called by a large host of friends, is a gentleman from the word "go". Charlie is a man that is willing to work for what he gets. For four seasons he fought with the scrub line and in his Senior year was awarded the coveted Centre C. Aside from his school work and activities he spends a great deal of his time in amusing the public. In this line he ranks among the most clever. Every dance trotter of the deadly specie thinks he is a wonder, and if any should visit Danville and not meet him, I will foreswear that he is sick.

SAM BAUGHMAN CRAIG

Stanford, Ky.

Stanford High School;
Chamberlain Literary Society, 1919-20;
University of Kentucky, 1921-22.

Sam says that it seems but yesterday that he came all the way from Stanford to glean an education in the classic halls of Old Centre, and now he is going back to spread the true light among the natives. During his course he has acquired all the city ways that life in Danville gives one, and we expect to see him the leading citizen of his home town in no time. Sam was interviewed this morning, and stated that he intended to become an elevator man. Well, we cautioned him that the calling had its ups and downs, but he assured us that while all this is true, he was sure of always getting a raise. Pax Vobiscum.

FRANK DOUGLASS CURRY, Jr.

Harrodsburg, Ky.

Sigma Nu;

Staunton Military Academy;

Dartmouth College, 1919, '20, '21.

"Doug", is very quiet, but that's the kind of water that runs deep. Nobody has as yet ever seen "Doug" really doing anything, but somehow he has amassed the required, and is now about to snatch a diploma. "Doug" is quite the polished young man, due, no doubt, to his sojourn at Dartmouth. When questioned as to what he intended to make his life work, we learned that his ambition is to be a missionary in Africa. When asked whether or not he was afraid of the Cannibals he answered, "Oh, that's all right. I am used to being eaten up. I live in Harrodsburg, you know."

EUGENE WILBUR COOK

Danville, Ky.

Danville High School;

Deinologian Literary Society;

"Old Centre" Staff, '22;

Assistant in Biology, '21, '22, '23;

Treasurer of Senior Class, '23;

Boyle County Club, '22.

"Bay", is a likeable sort of chap and is especially beloved by those struggling to achievement in the biology department. Wilbur has become almost a fixture in the science building and likes it so well he's coming back for another year. We don't know what Dr. Rainey will do when "Ikey" finally does leave but we do know that what "Old Centre" loses the world at large gains, and it leaves a mighty big balance in favor of the world.

"Bob" is a versatile sort of chap. His list of activities shows that. He is a modern language shark of the first order—he even has a Spanish class of his own. He is a pretty good Spanish athlete too, he always has a new story to tell you. As editor of the "Cento" he has kept his pen hot and his staff hopping. Political fracas are his delight. Not content with having his fingers in all the pie at Centre, he stepped over to Europe last summer to see how the students over there were coming along. Bob says he is going to further the spread of French and Spanish in Chattanooga next year.

We wish you luck Bob, and feel sure that your success at Centre will go with you.

"Hatch", although we have seen no evidences of it. Loving is his middle name. As a student, as a debater, and as a critic he has won fame in Centre College. He departed from Old Centre for a brief stay at Vanderbilt, but, soon realizing his error, he returned to his native habitat more than ever convinced what a wonderful place Centre is. His good nature, clever wit, and ready tongue have earned him life membership in each of Centre's twenty three Bull A While clubs.

"Bill." Ladies and gentlemen! Just feast your eyes upon the above accomplishments of Willie, and say that the President of the U. S. has been busy. Bill has been in everything but the cellar, and Doc Rainey says _____ but naughty, naughty. Willie rounds up the little boys who tell dirty jokes and play marbles when they should be doing what good little boys do. The last year has taken Bill away from the college a good deal, but he is generally on hand to wind up the clock. We know that Bill will put all his energy into teaching as he has done into student activities. May you ever be ready of tongue and full of _____ sense, as Doc Ervin teaches you to be.

"Preach." From the time that "Preach" distinguished himself in the flag rush a short time after he entered school until the presentation of his diploma, he has been the most versatile man on the campus. "Rat" can run a half mile in 1:57 4-5 and make A on a Greek "exam". He can play bridge all Saturday night and preach two sermons and conduct Sunday School the next day; he can tackle harder and pray louder than any man on the football squad; he is the first to arrive at and the last to leave a "bull session" and still he is a Rounde Table man. And these are just a few of his accomplishments—the others are catalogued above and I refer you to them. But what we like most about Dewey is that he is just a big-hearted, whole-souled kid who never will grow up—the true Centre type for which the school is famous.

ROBERT IRVIN LOWE

Tunica, Miss.

Advertising Manager "Old Centre" '22;

"Cento" Staff '21, '22;

Y. M. C. A. '21, '22, '23;

Minstrels, '21.

"Bob" is a typical "Southern Gentleman". That's a big compliment but "Bob" deserves it every bit. He has all the necessary ingredients including a large dose of pep and personality that one cannot but like.

"Bob" managed to graduate in three and a half years and so has not been with us this last semester, but we are certainly glad he is to be back with us at Carnival time and we're betting he'll import the keenest girl of the season, as per usual. "Here's to you 'Bob'," in the good old Southern way.

GORDON E. MORROW

West Plains, Mo.
Tennessee Military Academy;
Sigma Alpha Epsilon;
Chamberlain Literary Society, Pres. '23;
Y. M. C. A.

"Gov" certainly is full of surprises. He went along for three years in his quiet way and then in his senior year turns out to be a confirmed K. C. W. hound. Quite efficient at it too.

Being from Missouri "Gov" has to be shown a lot of things but he can show anyone up along the boxing line. But this is only a sideline and we expect him to end up nowhere short of the U. S. Senate because we know he's "got the stuff".

JOHN THOMAS MOSS, Jr.

Campbellville High School;
 Assistant in Physics;
 Professor of Mathematics at K. C. W.;
 Ye Rounde Table;
 Tennis Team, '22-'23;
 Captain of Tennis, '23;
 Chamberlain Literary Society;
 Social Committee, '23.

"Jack" is quite a hard worker and you can nearly always find him with several books under his arm and we are all under the impression that he uses them occasionally. Jack is a great tennis player and he will also get his degree in P. S. (Pool Shooting). We hate to see him leave us, but "Even the best of friends must part." So we hope that you will have the greatest of success.

EDGAR C. NEWLIN

 Sophomore Latin Prize, '21;
 Omicron Delta Kappa;
 Pi Kappa Delta; Charter Member and Pres. '22-'23;
 President of Ye Rounde Table, '23.

"Gantz" "Eck." Look him over boys. He's a go-getter. If "Eck" meets with half as much success in the world as he has in college we'll be reading about him in "Literary Digest" fifteen years from now. Seeing that he is preparing to be a lawyer we hope that he wins his first "case". He has recently distinguished himself by his invention of his famous Untiable Shoe-strings, which it is reported are selling at a great rate. "Eck" is a fellow who is 99.44% pure. We do not know whether he floats or not, but of course he will always come to the top. Good luck "Gantz"; don't overstate the question when you propose.

WALTER GIVENS PENNINGTON

London, Ky.

Chi Psi;

Millersburg Military Institute;

Member Social Committee, '19-'20;

Assistant in Biology, '19, '20, '21, '22, '23;

University of Colorado, '20-'21.

"Penny" Ahem!—Dr. Pennington. Having cut up all of the cats in Danville and vicinity, "Penny" is about to leave us. Yes, and going to learn how to cut on people, having grown tired of cats. Well, if experience counts for anything, he should be a howling success. But what is Dr. Rainey going to do for someone to take his place? One thing we hope "Penny" will remember. If he is bound to learn how to be a cut-up, we hope that he will confine his cutting to the operating room. It is always best.

EDWARD ROGERS PREWITT, Jr.

Mt. Sterling, Ky.
 Mt. Sterling High School, '19;
 Deinologian Literary Society;
 Y. M. C. A.;
 President Senior Class, '23;
 Carnival Committee, '23.

"Uncle Ed," the boy from the city of the Gateway to the Mountains. The question now is which side of the line did he hail from. This is of trivial importance after knowing him four years at Centre. During his college days, he has accumulated a formidable host of friends from the faculty, students and townspeople. To a friend he is a true friend and to those that are not, they have the satisfaction of knowing where he stands. With his diploma leaves one of Centre's most friendly men.

He will probably return to the farm and renew his attempts to entice the verdant green from the virgin soil.

EMIL GARNES PURDOM

Perryville High School, '19;
 Chamberlain Literary Society;
 Ye Rounde Table Treas., '23;
 Ass't in Physics, '20;
 Inst. at K. C. W. in Phy. and Math.

"Purd." Hailing from the little historic town of Perryville this young intellectual giant has conquered the physical world. His excellent work has even carried him into the elite circle of instructors at K. C. W. He is modest and retiring but one can always count on a pleasant word from him. If you want his opinion you have to ask for it, but it is always worth the asking. He claims to be immune from the charms of the fair ones but you can never tell how long it will be before he gets ensnared, especially if he keeps his position at K. C. W.

HALL TERRY SNOWDAY

Owensboro, Ky.

Phi Delta Meta;	Basket Ball, '22-'23;
Omicron Delta Kappa;	Sock and Buskin Club;
Graduate Owensboro High School, '18;	Treas. Deinologian Literary Society;
Univ. of Kentucky S. A. T. C.;	Y. M. C. A. Friendship Council, '22-'23;
F. A. C. O. T. S. Camp Taylor, 1918;	Vice President Junior Class, '21-'22;
Football, '19-'20-'21-'22;	Cherry Cheer Club.

"Terry" is one of Centre's foremost athletes. At State, where he attended school his first year, he is known as "Terrible Terry". Although he was a mainstay in athletic department, he did not let this interfere with class room work and other activities. Everything that he went into he gave his best. The social life of our beloved college will suffer an irreparable loss when "Turpin" carries away his sheepskin. For a while it was thought our stalwart end was seeing entirely too much of the many to ever settle to one, but at last a conquering hero from the foothills came and put her brand on him as though he were a Blue Grass shorthorn instead of Pennyryle ranger.

RALPH B. SUPPLEE

Carrollton, Ky.
 Carrollton High School;
 Phi Kappa Tau;
 Ye Rounde Table;
 Spanish Club, Treas. '23;
 Assistant in Modern Languages.

"Zip" is one of the best students at Centre, and in addition he is a darn likeable fellow. He is very quiet—so much so that you wouldn't suspect what a line he can hand out when you get him started. Ralph is a foreign language major, and an assistant too. Freshman are mighty deferential to him, especially if they have just written a bad test.

"Zip" is very secretive about his future. It is believed, however, that he aspires to be a South American financier. At present he is spending all his spare time dabbling in accounting. May the future bring you prosperity and all that is good, "Zip," you deserve it.

THOMAS RICHARDSON WELLS

Chamberlain Literary Society Sec., '19, Vice President, '21;

Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, Treasurer, '19, Secretary, '20;

Mountain Club;

Assistant Librarian, '22, '23.

"Tom." Sliding down the mountains into the peaceful Blue Grass, Tom has established a fame which will not die with his departure. He has no special hobby but as his preparation is in the line of teaching, we look for him to revolutionize the profession by making it easier for the High School boys to get by. His thoughts seem to flow in thick deep currents and one finds it hard to see through them at times, yet it is always worth the trouble to find out his conclusions on the matter in hand. He is ambitious, capable and determined, and is sure to attain success.

"Tommy." Tommy is the fellow who placed Rineyville on the map. If you do not think it is on there ask him, he'll point it out to you. His town was glad to send this man to Centre and they will be surprised to see what four years of college life have made of him. He wears a smile that is as permanent as the color of his hair. His scholarship and forensic ability will carry him far towards success in his chosen profession. Luck to you, Wortham, we're with you.

This red-headed boy from the mountains has certainly made an enviable record at Centre. "Red" is an authority on English and kindred subjects and it is only Freshmen who doubt anything he says along these lines.

We have no worry about the future success of "Red" because we know he's a worker and when the roll is called he'll be there with the goods.

Senior History

MEMBERS of the class of 1923 began their battle for knowledge in much the same manner that had attended many previous generations of Centre men. The Sophomore class received for us, and after many minutes had passed we knew that we would get in the end just what was coming to us. Thus, by the power of the paddle, did we become full-fledged sons of Centre. Simultaneous with the entrance of the Class of 1923 was the meteoric rise to fame of the Wonder Team. This first step up the road to glory was marked most prominently by the 14 to 6 victory over West Virginia, which victory placed Centre in the football lime-light, and earned her the right to play Harvard. Most of the inscriptions "14-6" which one may still see scattered over town have been attributed to the class of '23, the then Freshman class. A history would be nothing if it was not truthful, and so it is our sad duty to relate the story of our first participation in that famous old Centre institution—the flag rush. Never before had there been such a conglomeration of beef, brawn, bums, and brute strength gathered together in the same motley mob as was exhibited when the class of '22 came charging at us across the KCW campus. Notwithstanding a last desperate effort a few minutes before six o'clock in the morning, we were forced down to defeat.

As Sophomores we handed out to the incoming frosh the same warm treatment that we had received the year before. All during this year the class of 1923 developed its tendencies for vamping KCW, shooting pool, and evading hard work, and the faculty reports that it succeeded well. The most important event of our Sophomore year was the pilgrimage to Harvard. Said the Boston Post, "Centre is defeated by Harvard 31 to 14 but shows itself truly the magic team." The magic team it really was, and the reception which welcomed the boys back, showed that defeat had not dimmed its glory in the least. The following week the team journeyed to Georgia Tech, and those who remember are still gnashing their teeth. "Rambling Wreck" was right. Our jinx still followed us, and in the spring the freshmen outnumbered us and tied us up.

Our third year came, and found Centre without a president. Class of '23 did its part in holding the old school together. Centre 6, Harvard O stands out as the most potent fact of the year. Centre just refused to take defeat. Two years straight in the Stadium seems to be an impossibility however, and this season saw the colonels, beaten by a 24-10 score. This year marks the beginning of a new administration which we hope will continue for many years.

It is only when we come to this, the last year, that we realize how large a part the class of 1923 has played in activities during the past four years. Leaders in every form of collegiate enterprise are found among us.

The class of '23 is the one hundredth to graduate from Old Centre. We cannot be accused of being unduly proud of ourselves if we chance the remark that we hope the next hundred years will finish as successfully as have the last.

Junior History

THERE is an old saying that, "History repeats itself." This proverb may be true with the Junior Classes that have preceded the Class of '24, but we feel that our Class has an unusual history, one that should be remembered by all those who are interested in the advancement of Centre College. Not only have the usual achievements, which are found in the history of most every Junior Class, been "repeated"; but "History has been made."

The first fact that goes to make up this New History is the large enrollment in the Freshman year. Up to that time, the Class of '24 was the largest in the history of the institution. Because we were a large class, the Sophomores seemed to take a greater delight in using their paddles as we unhesitatingly made our way down the long and crooked gauntlet. However, the Sophomores were "predestined" to perish in the flag-rush. This old doctrine they soon learned to be true, as our large army met them at the appointed place.

Many have fallen by the wayside during the three years of our sojourn here, but we still have forty-eight in our number. This is another "history making fact" that makes our Class the largest Junior Class in the history of Centre College. We had a number of strong athletes in the Freshman and Sophomores years, but only Dooley and Green remain to uphold our standards in that realm of College activities.

Nevertheless, the Class of '24 has reason to be proud of her record in the realm of scholarship. There were sixteen of our number who were eligible for membership in the highest scholarship group on the campus—"Ye Rounde Table." There was such difficulty in selecting from the sixteen who were eligible, because of the high standard of each prospect. This organization has never before had such difficulty in choosing the ones, whom they thought to be the most deserving, to sit around that "Long Honored Table."

We do not record these facts in our history for any egotistical reason, because they are historical facts, of which, not only the Junior Class should be proud, but every student of Old Centre. This short but eventful narrative closes our history up to the present time. However, we have one more year in which to accomplish greater things for our well beloved Alma Mater.

Paul Morris Watson,

Historian, '24.

Sophomore Class History

SEPTEMBER 14, 1921, may be of unusual importance, but to one hundred and fifty youths, who, for the first time stepped off the train at Danville, it is a day paramount in their memory. We had vivid mental pictures of painful, torturing, and embarrassing events of the freshman year, but few were they that did not support a firm set jaw as we marched up for a once-over of the campus.

If any of the new arrivals were disappointed with the surroundings, the gloom was displaced by a full measure of the Centre spirit, pep and good fellowship which prevails on the Campus. All went well during the year, the Class has contributed much in the class room and on the athletic field. Never in the history of the College has any one class contributed so much in an athletic way. Our class feels greatly honored in having nine wearers of the "C" of the wonder team of 1921. And this year we have the distinction of having fourteen wearers of letters in the class, some having two or more.

The last few weeks preceding the Christmas holidays glided swiftly by, and oh the joys and sweet memories of those two weeks at home partaking of the yuletide's best and the choice products of culinary art, not to mention pleasant evenings with the admired one of the "opposing". Also at this time the million-dollar drive for the College was completed. The Sophomore Class doing their bit to make it a success.

Last year we covered ourselves with glory in the flag rush, but not until after a battle had waged for several hours, could the numerals of the class of '25 be seen waving from the pole. I'll make no predictions as to the final outcome of it this year, but one thing I do say is, "Freshmen look out"! We are mighty strong and have a trick or two up our sleeves.

With the passing of the nerve-racking exams, the last semester was ushered in and our hearts made glad, for now has come in earnest the campaign for a new stadium and a better Centre. Faculty Alumni and students are making a pull for a bigger and better institution to do just honor to Centre's previous enviable record. Thus the Sophomore Class feels itself fortunate in having two more years to grow with the college.

As to the future we will let old Father Time handle that dope, but for the Class of '25 we will venture to predict that on the incline of progress there will be far more Climbers than Coasters.

Hugh Stevenson,

Historian, Class of '25.

History of the Freshman Class

THE class of '26 met for the first time, in the auditorium of the main building, September 13, 1922. It was not the largest class nor, by any means, the most indifferent class that ever entered Centre College, as has been suggested by the Sophs., but a class of men selected from the best high schools in the U. S. A. Probably we were an odd looking crowd, at least the Sophs. thought so, and they used little discretion in making their thoughts known to us.

We were given about three weeks to get acquainted with the place and the environment of college life, then we were taxed one dollar and fifty cents for the honor of wearing a gold and white skullcap, which we donned with pride; bought a cob pipe and then life started from a new angle. The gods deserted us and we were left to the mercy of the second year class. We went through a performance, called initiation, and known very well to the alumni, as it has not changed in the past century. Certain rules were published by which we were to conduct ourselves and our previous rights declared null and void. We continued to exist, however, under these circumstances until our sturdy eleven defeated the Kentucky Kittens. In honor of this victory we made a huge bonfire of our caps and ties and declared ourselves free.

In football our men showed the fight of their older brothers and their record is one of which we are proud. In basket ball they showed the same old pep and are worthy of their name—the Lieutenants. We have many prospective baseball and track men, of whom we expect great things. Our varsity is going to be considerably strengthened by the members of our class.

We were caught in the hot box and otherwise critised, but, whether these criticisms be right or wrong, we are now full-fledged members of Old Centre and boast of belonging to the class of '26.

Some of our members were caught by the mid-year exams. and their faces are no longer seen on our campus. We appreciate the fact, however, that these are ordeals which serve to separate the sheep from the goats and that only the survival of the fittest may escape.

When we entered Centre College our minds had only touched upon the great field of knowledge but as the years go by, under the instruction and guidance of kind mentors, they will continue to grow until (to use the expression of a Sophomore) from that mass of ignorant protoplasm there will emerge at last an intellect, which will be capable of solving life's problems and difficulties and rendering a valuable service to mankind. Already we notice a great change and our days at Centre shall not have been spent in vain.

Arville Wheeler,
Historian, Class of '26.

"Old Chamberlain" is now approaching the end of the ninety-fifth year of her existence. She boasts of being the oldest literary society, in point of continuous existence, west of the Alleghenys.

The Chamberlain is the older of the two societies in Centre, and the history of her glorious past as well as her constructive work of the present has attracted many seekers of knowledge, and many desirers of literary development, into her classic hall.

At the close of this busy year we look back upon many occasions of literary character in which "Old Chamberlain" was always well represented by some of her able members. In the Ernst Debate Mr. Hatchett of Chamberlain won second place. In the inter society oratorical contest, Mr. Watson carried off first honors, and won the gold medal, and Mr. Wortham came third. Mr. Watson represented the college in the State Oratorical contest.

That "Old Chamberlain" has an enviable past, no one can deny; that she may have a bright and prosperous future is for her coming sons to make a reality. Men have gone out from this honored hall, and have filled positions of trust and responsibility in the various walks of life. When the time came for them to leave "Old Chamberlain", their parting words were good wishes to the society for even a greater future than had been its illustrious past.

To the future sons of Centre the society says:

"When you come to school at Centre,
With a heart to give and get;
Come to Chamberlain when you enter,
And yours shall be no sad regret."

The Deinologian Literary Society was organized in the year 1835 by a number of the students of Centre College, who were discontented with Chamberlain. Or perhaps, she was discontented with them; but however that may be, their successors have certainly followed in their footsteps, for they have been discontented with Chamberlain and she with them, ever since.

The most distinguished son of Deinologian's early days is without doubt John C. Breckinridge who held many important offices and among them that of Vice President of the United States.

Among the famous members of whom the Deinologian Society is especially proud as having gone forth from her walls are: John Young Brown, a former Governor of the State; Thomas T. Crittenden, an ex-Governor of Missouri and ex-Congressman from the same state; Thomas Z. Morrin, the famous Circuit Judge of the Eighth Kentucky District; William C. Young, a former distinguished President of Centre College; John W. Yerkes, who was the United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C.; and Judge Alex P. Humphrey and J. Boyle, noted members of the Louisville Bar.

Not only do we glory in the recollections and traditions of the past, but we are proud of Deinologian's present record. The Deinologian members worked well.

Due to the increased interest in Y. work the members of the cabinet saw fit to organize an assistant group—"The Friendship Council," composed of men more or less interested in the work, a representative body of all organizations on the campus, who through the fraternities and dormitory groups have created greatest interest in the Y. M. C. A. among the student body.

A series of group discussions was thus carried on, lasting six weeks, the pressing problems of campus life being discussed, and later brought before the cabinet for further action.

The Council continues in an embryo state, this year, and with renewed life in September hopes to prove its worth in reaching the distant members of the student body. The Y. M. C. A. membership is large and a great work can be carried on by these men.

The council meets every two weeks to discuss any question that might have arisen that it may be worked out immediately.

The purpose of the club is two-fold: First, To enable the members to speak the language more fluently. Second: That of promoting interest in the life, literature, and customs of Spain and Spanish speaking people.

The club is affiliated with the Instituto de las Espanas which offers annually a medal to the member of each club presenting the best essay on Cervantes and his work.

The membership of the club now comprises sixteen men, including Profs. Meier and Diez, honorary faculty members.

Meetings are held every two weeks, and the programs are rendered in Spanish. The following officers were elected at the beginning of the year:

Eighteenth Annual Centre College Carnival

June 11, 12, 13, 1923

Danville, Kentucky

WE are all over-anxious to get to Centre in the fall and have the same strong feeling to get away in the spring, and the Centre College Athletic Carnival is the yearly crowning event of every Centre student's year's work.

When the reign of duty and responsibility is past, and the glittering sun shines on the rich meadows, shadowy woodland and smiling gardens of paradise regained, the most famous spot on this earth for its luring atmosphere, and famous through all precedent for its hospitable environment—the Kentucky Bluegrass—the happiness of combined youth and love simply bursts forth in the heart of every youth present, and in most cases their climax is the result, after having been given full sway during the carnival which always takes place in the early part of June.

An eventful week, unique of its kind, one which has been forever filled with dearest memories for all those fortunate young men whom the star of destiny had led to the pursuit of an elusive higher education at Centre College is the great Carnival week. The round of merriment and festivities with which Centre College has been wont to greet the full flower of radiant spring and the kiss with which she sends forth enthusiastic and favored sons to fight their battles in the arena of life.

The round of festivities starts with the Alumnae Reception, at which the fathers and mothers of the sons of Old Centre reminisce with each other and partake of the always revolutionized social events of the present day.

Throughout the Carnival days the colonels of Centre contend for the smiles of their ladies fair in tennis and baseball with other institutions that are always glad to receive the Carnival invitation.

The feature of the second night is the Carnival play in which the best of amateur talent of Centre has a chance to shine forth, and much better of late years, since the affiliation of the famous dramatic organization of Centre College—The Sock and Buskin.

And then on the last night of the Carnival, which is the most eventful of all, the Queen of Queens crowns her escort King of All with a wreath of immortal laurel, and they are the most highly honored host and hostess of the far-famed Carnival Dance, famous in Kentucky and the South as the gayest and most brilliant social affair of the year. Also, during a short intermission between the coronation and the dance, C's are formally awarded those honored few who have earned them during the then ending year of college athletics. The dance, which is the glorious and never-forgotten finale, carries on into the hours of the day to be.

Thus endeth, but never forgotten, the days of each college year at Dear Old Centre College.

"UNCLE CHARLIE" MORAN

The Country's Greatest Coach

"Unc" as he is commonly called is one of the country's greatest football coaches. He is liked by everybody and commands respect wherever he is. He is a man of great personality, and the boys would follow him through H--l if he said that it would be necessary to go there. He is fair to all and even the greenest sub will get part of his attention and advice, thus giving everyone a square deal.

His latest hobby is the building of the stadium for his boys to romp in next year, and he went at it like he does everything else, so we can expect to see a fine stadium here this coming fall. We wish to congratulate him on the splendid way he put this immense project across.

ROBERT L. MYERS

Athletic Director

"Chief." The name of Robert L. Meyers will live forever in the minds of the Danville people and Centre men on account of his great interest in the school and for his ability as an organizer. He has been in charge of Athletics at Centre for a long time and he has proven more than worthy of the position. He knows boys from head to foot, and he has helped to instill that fighting spirit in the team when everything was hopeless. We hope that he will always be closely connected with us, but wherever he may go we wish him the best of success.

Centre 72—Carson Newman 0

The first game of the season was played with Carson Newman on Cheek field, September the twenty-third. The visitors seemed to lack team work and Centre romped through the line and around their ends with ease. Practically the whole squad played in this game but Hudgins stood out as the individual star both on the offense and defense, playing one of his best games during the season. Uncle Charlie was calling balls and strikes when this game was played, however, it was only a few days later that he could be found on the field getting his boys in shape for the Clemson struggle. During his absence line coach Bond had charge of the squad and much of the credit of winning the initial game was due him.

Centre 21—Clemson 0

Centre journeyed to South Carolina and on the last day of September met the Clemson eleven. A crowd of ten thousand football fans turned out to watch the Colonels play, the largest that has ever witnessed a game played in Clemson's natural amphitheatre. During the first quarter both sides were held scoreless but Centre got away in the second, third and fourth quarters, scoring one touchdown in each. Lemon headed all three goals. The broken field running by Covington—the catching of passes by Snowday and Lemon and the defensive work of Bartlett and Kubale were the features of the game. Captain Roberts was unable to play because of the death of his sister, and needless to say his absence was keenly felt by the Centre team.

The boys from down in the sticks came to Danville with a good record and were highly touted. But when they stacked up against the Praying Colonels, they could not seem to get started. They seemed inexperienced in the finer points of the game, although beef and brawn were not lacking. Uncle Charlie kept his subs busy relaying, in the muddy second half. The game was appreciably slowed up by the continual substituting and by the rain, which poured steadily in the second half. Herb Covington proved his versatility by registering a 45-yard drop kick. The broken field running of Hudgins as well as the defensive work of Humpty Tanner featured the afternoon. The Colonels put up a good exhibition, although their goal was never in danger. The playing of Liggett for the second string men was also one of the bright spots. The line was holding true to form and never an inch was made through it.

Centre 32—W. & L. 7

One of the biggest games of the year was that in which the famous Generals met the Colonels on a neutral field. The stands were filled to overflowing, and the spectators were rewarded by a spectacular game of ball, such as has been seldom seen in this neck of the woods. The Generals were handicapped by the absence of Mattox, the crafty pilot of the boys from Virginia. But if he would have added much to their strength it were well for the Kentuckians that he was missing. Old Nero was a bulwark, as was Gordy and Kubale, and to them was added the brilliant attack of Covington and Hudgins. Covington was there on catching points and running his broken field, but to the latter was given the bright spot of the day. It was a long to be remembered run, made through a broken field of the entire W. & L. team. It seemed as though Hope dodged the whole outfit at least three times before he sprinted for a touchdown. Red's interference with Hump following seemed to be a much rehearsed act, with an encore given after each performance. W. & L.'s touchdown was the result of an intercepted pass, followed by straight bucking and baffling cross bucks. The team played well as a whole, was strong on the defense and fast to follow up every advantage.

Centre 32—U. of L. 7

The University of Louisville eleven put in their appearance on Cheek field the twenty-eighth of October. Their team compared to Centre was weak and their sole idea was to hold the Colonels to as low a score as possible. However before the game was over the Louisvillians had managed to score. It was the first touchdown made on Cheek field by a visiting team in four years. An intercepted forward pass gave U. of L. possession of the ball on Centre's twenty-five yard line and they pushed the ball over by successive line bucks. Centre could have scored at will, instead she made the majority of her points by drop kicks. In this game Covington established a world's record by successfully kicking six drop kicks, ranging in distance from twenty to thirty-five yards.

Centre 27—State 3

On November fourth practically the whole of Danville spent the day in Lexington. Stoll field was the scene of the struggle between K. U. and Centre for the football supremacy of the state, the weather was ideal and the stands were filled. Centre kicked off to State. During the first half State had the edge on Centre and the half ended with the Wild Cats leading 3-0. The second half however proved disastrous for State. Repeated gains through the line by Roberts and Tanner and end runs by Covington and Hudgins brought Centre's final score to twenty-seven. Kubale the "fighting fool" again outplayed Fest at center and Fest was forced to leave the game. Pubble and Gregg played a good game for Kentucky State.

MINOS GORDY

"BALDY" GREGOR

CENTRE 10—HARVARD 24.

For the third time Centre met Harvard on her own ground. The battle royal was fought October 21, 1922, before a crowd of 50,000 people that taxed Harvard stadium to its capacity. Centre outplayed Harvard man for man, outgained her rush for rush, but she could not outluck her. Fumbles of the most costly kind presented the Crimson with two out of her three touchdowns and placed her in the position to kick a field goal late in the first half. It was in this game that Centre inaugurated her famous "Sing Sing" shift which worked so effectively against her opponents. As an Eastern paper put it, three features were emphasized in that game, mainly the brand of football played by the Crimson eleven, the heroic comeback of the Colonels after that disastrous first period and the novel chain gang shift introduced by the Moranmen.

There is no telling what the result might have been had Centre gotten away with a good start. It was in this period that Centre suffered her defeat. By costly fumbles at the most critical times the Crimson eleven was able to pile up a lead that could not have been overcome by the most heroic fighting. During the last half of the game Centre made the most brilliant comeback ever witnessed on an athletic field. She made ten first downs to Harvard's one, she outplayed her in every respect. Covington was by long odds the leading figure on the field. He carried the ball time after time behind the peculiar lateral shift and seldom did he fail to gain.

In the first period Harvard netted two scores and kicked goal both times. In the second period by a forward pass from Buell to Chapin on their twenty yard line gave Harvard her third score. The last half was Centre's own. At the start of the period the Colonels marched fifty one yards down to Harvard's six yard line and there Covington kicked a field goal which gave Centre her first score. In this period he made the longest run made in the entire game when he caught a Harvard punt on his own twenty one yard line and zig-zagged down the field for forty one yards before he was downed. The Centre touchdown in the last quarter also scored by Covington, was the result of a sustained march down the field, where he, led by the reliable Roberts, went around left end for a touchdown. Final score: Harvard 24, Centre 10.

Centre was defeated but not vanquished. By turning a riot into a near victory she showed the class that has turned the ungrudging admiration of the whole world for the "Praying Colonels" and as they left that great throbbing stadium acclaimed by all a great team neither victorious nor vanquished. Again we say "God bless the team".

Centre 10—V. P. I. 6

Probably the hardest game of the season was played with V. P. I. at Richmond, Va. V. P. I. was the first to score making a touch-down in the second quarter of the game. They missed the goal. Things looked bad indeed for Centre until the beginning of the fourth quarter when she seemed to take on new life and play the brand of football that Centre teams are accustomed to play. Covington scored the only touch-down for Centre on an off tackle play and a short time later drop kicked goal from Virginia's eighteen yard line. Centre was handicapped by injuries—Rubarth had just recovered from the flu and Bartlett left the game with fever of 104 degrees.

On October fourteenth the S. I. A. A. ruled Gordy and Shadoan eligible for the remainder of the season. Much joy was shown in Danville.

Centre 0—Auburn 6

The fact that Harvard had beaten Centre was not so bad, but Auburn's repetition was a bitter pill to take. Before the largest crowd assembled in Birmingham for many moons, Centre bowed her head to Auburn's superior weight. The conditions were adverse to Centre's best efforts for twice when "Flash" Covington was open for a clear shot at the goal twice he slipped and the safety man nabbed him. Red couldn't get going, and the line found the field heavy. The ball saw-sawed back and forth between the thirty yard lines and except at the first there was no danger to either goal. The Colonels fumbled at a critical moment and the golden opportunity was lost. It was a proud day for Captain John Shirey, Baby Pearce and Slick Moulton. The wet field slowed Red up on his kick just long enough for Pearce to sift through and block it. Slick Moulton recovered for Auburn and the Tiger went wild. Lemon's playing should receive a mark of commendation because he was arsenic itself on defending his end. There is a brighter day coming and if it is indeed bright next fall when Centre meets Auburn, look out Tiger.

Centre 42—South Carolina 0

Centre closed the season on Thanksgiving day by defeating the University of South Carolina. Centre outplayed the visitors in every phrase of the game. End runs by Green, Covington, and Hudgins were the features of the game. This was the last game in which Captain Roberts, Cregor and Snowday were to be seen fighting for Centre, and it is with a great deal of sorrow that we see these men leave. We hope however that "Baldy" Cregor will be with us next year in the capacity of line coach.

After the game the letter men met and elected Kubale Captain of the 1923 eleven. Ku is a fighter from the word go and he will make one of the best captains that Centre has ever had. Eighteen men were awarded football letters for their work during the season.

So ended the football season of 1922.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

The Centre Lieutenants had a successful season and it didn't take one long to see that they are chips off the old block and worthy of the name Colonels. Under the wise coaching of Murphy, Bond and Kendrick, the team rounded into shape and presented one of the classiest backfields that has been seen on Cheek Field. A large percentage of the freshmen class turned out for practice, and the boys sure showed that they could play football.

The yearling's played two games with the ancient rival, Kentucky State, and broke even, winning the first 13 to 0, and losing the second 19 to 0. Both games were battles from the first to the finish, and it was in these games that Seeley, Rabenstein, Spurlock, Gleim, and others began to show their ability. The score was nothing to nothing in the first game and darkness was creeping over Cheek Field in the final period when Gleim snatched up a State fumble and ran the length of the field for a touchdown. A few minutes later the goal was kicked, and after the kickoff Centre marched down the field for another touchdown. There was no doubt about the Lieutenants outclassing the Kittens in this game and the odds on the next game were decidedly with us. When our team went to Lexington there were several changes made in the line, and it seemed that we were never able in the final half to get away with the pigskin. However, the fellows showed the old fight and spirit that has made Centre famous in a dozen different lands, and next year these players will be heard from.

Later in the season Sewanee sent up a team that took the Lieutenants into camp and administered a 7 to 0 defeat. The playing of Seeley, Rabenstein, Miller and the whole squad was much better than that shown in the second State game. Both teams remained scoreless the first half, but in the third period Sewanee made a touchdown and Centre was never able to get over the line. Eb. Miller proved the star of the afternoon, and with his long end runs gained many yards.

Several men were tried at the quarterback position, and Pace, Bond and Rabenstein, showed that they could "carry the mail." All three are backs that will come back to Centre in the fall determined to make the team and the regulars will have to hustle to keep their positions. Leonard proved to be a punter of considerable ability, and his long kicks were instrumental in the fine playing of the Lieutenants. Summers and Bierman played in most of the games and hit the line hard, as well as being fast and shifty backs.

The Waite High School was played in Chicago and beaten by a couple of touchdowns. This school always has a strong team, but they couldn't stop the sons of Old Centre.

With most of the stars of this year's freshman team returning next fall, Centre will have another team that will win laurels on many a gridiron and bring glory to the Bluegrass of Kentucky.

Much of the credit for the fine showing of the Lieutenants must be given to Coach Murphy. "Murph" has proven a valuable addition to our coaching staff and will be on hand in the fall to guide the destinies of the first year men.

Centre has a right to be proud of the showing made by her freshmen, and many of these will make names for themselves before they leave the old institution. With Uncle Charlie Moran back on the job in the fall and the completion of the stadium, there will be new spirit infused into the team, and this new blood has already demonstrated their ability to play the game.

BASKETBALL

1923

BASKET BALL SQUAD, 1923

JIMMY GREEN—Forward.

Jimmy Green, captain of the 1922-23 Centre basket ball aggregation, displayed a brand of ball that has received the commendation of the highest critics in the state. Hand-capped to some extent by lack of size and weight, it cannot be said, however, that he was ever lacking in that fundamental which is the essential of winning basket ball teams, and which may be characterized by the word "tight". Jimmy was given a berth on the all-state five.

TERRY SNOWDAY, Guard.

Terry's ability to guard the teams saved the day for Centre in many of her games during the season. He certainly showed a world of stuff and always could be counted on to deliver the goods at a standing guard position. Terry gets his sheepskin this year and he will sure be missed when the squad turns out for practice next year.

HERBERT COVINGTON, Guard.

Covy is a veteran of the basket ball court and was instrumental at running guard both in advancing the ball with consistency and breaking up enemy formations. He was a whirlwind on the floor and at least once or twice during the game startled the onlookers by his remarkable shots. Covy is a clean, hard player who plays to win.

JOSEPH DOOLEY, Forward.

Joe is one of the hardest workers on the team and at all times plays a consistent game. Besides being cool on the floor and taking advantage of every opportunity available, Dooley has a mean eye for the basket. He did much to strengthen Kendricks gang of net men.

R. L. THOMASSON, Center

From the exhibition of basket ball put up by Case following his reinstatement on the team at the commencement of the second semester, it is highly probable that the defeat at the hands of Alabama and Tennessee might have been turned into victories. Case is one of the best centers in the state and had he played the entire season, he would have been sure of a place on the all-state team.

ROGER SNOWDAY, Guard.

Following an absence of a year, Roger returned to Centre to round out his basket ball as well as his educational career. Roger played on the Freshman team the first semester but as soon as February rolled around he was transferred to a regular berth on the first team. He will be back next year and a lot will be expected of him.

FRANK PETERSON

Frank is a good player and there are very few plays but what you will find him right in the midst of them. He works hard and is always on the alert, and it is a rare occasion when any of his opponents can put anything over on him. We are expecting great things from him next year.

YATES HUDSON, Forward.

Yates was handicapped by lack of size but always managed to give a good account of himself. Despite his lack of weight Yates was always willing to "mix-it-up" with the roughest of them and when the whistle blew he was generally on his feet. He is another boy that ought to make a good showing next year.

BASKET BALL

At the beginning of the basket ball season Coach Kendrick had five letter men around which to build a winning team. These, however, were men of only one year experience and quite a bit of drilling was necessary before things began to run smoothly. From the letter men of last year, Jimmy Green was chosen captain of the squad.

Centre opened the season with Kentucky Wesleyan on January thirteenth. The whole team showed up remarkably well and managed to roll up thirty-three points against the visitors twenty-five. Four days later Western Normal journeyed to Danville with their heart set on beating Centre, and although the game was fiercely fought they left the next morning holding the small end of the score. On the twenty-fourth of January Centre suffered her first defeat of the season at the hands of Alabama. There is no doubt but what the Alabama boys had the better team, but Centre fought hard and was gaining little by little when the final whistle cut off hopes of victory.

The Centre squad went to Lexington on the twenty-seventh to beat State and succeeded. Too much cannot be said about this game. Centre out-played State from the start and throughout the game they never were in danger of being overtaken by the Lexington boys. The next two games ended in defeat for Centre. The University of Tennessee team came to Danville on the seventh of February and won only after two over-time periods had been played. One side would forge ahead only to be surpassed by the other. Captain Green was the individual star of the game for Centre. The next night Centre played Centenary College but were unable to roll up enough points to beat the boys from Louisiana. The Centenary boys were a bunch of husky mountaineers, but they knew basket ball and were well coached.

Old Centre again had a chance to revenge herself upon State for the two defeats handed her during the 1921-22 season, on the fourteenth of February. With the taste of defeat still in her mouth Centre played State, beating her by seven points. The season had been a success.

The State net title went to Centre when she played the Louisville Y. M. H. A. and defeated them, before a crowd of two thousand spectators.

At the end of the season Centre went to the S. I. A. A. Tournament in Atlanta but were defeated by the strong Georgia Tech. team on the second day of the meet. Green again showed his worth at the Southern Tournament, receiving the commendation of the Southern sport writers.

Coach Kendrick deserves a great deal of credit for the admirable showing the team made during the past season. Besides the letter men, Alexander, Redman, Leathers, and Kubale deserve mention, because it was with these men's help that a winning team was moulded.

FRESHMAN BASKET BALL

This is the first year that Centre College has ever had a Freshman basket ball team and we are very proud of it. Coach Murphy is to be congratulated on the way he handled his men and on the good team that he turned out, although they had a little hard luck during the season.

Many of the Freshmen came to us from Prep. and High schools, leaving behind them good records to their credit, and they certainly have lived up to their records, and no doubt but what we will see several of them on the Varsity squad next year.

This being the first year of the Freshman basket ball, we were rather lacking in games, but when this was the case the Varsity would come to our aid and furnish us a little amusement, and also a few bruises and black eyes. These games were of great interest to all the students and also to the players because they were pretty evenly matched, and sometimes the yearlings would lead the Varsity, but as a rule we would be at the tail end of the score.

We played the State Freshmen two games, but they were unable to win either game, much to their chagrin and pride. The score in both games was very close, and the boys put up a fight that showed that the Centre spirit was in them, even though they have been here for such a short time. The whole team showed up good, but I will mention some of the outstanding players. Bene Leonard at center was a whirl-wind on both the offensive and defensive, he was in nearly every play. His speed and skill are hard to equal on the basket ball floor. Gabe Summers, the captain, is one of the cleverest men at shooting goals that we have seen in a long time. He can throw them from all parts of the floor and from most any position. Also Miller was a flash on the floor and he was in nearly every play.

We could go on mentioning the whole team because they are all stars, but our space is limited, so in closing, I will say that we are looking forward to next year's team with great pleasure because with the aid of these men we will have another winning team.

1923

The track team of 1923 experienced a most successful season, showing to advantage in practically every meet, even though they competed with some of the best track aggregations in the country. Coach McMillin, as well as all the men on the squad, did everything that it was possible to do, in order to round into shape for our first outdoor meet of the year. This meet was with Sewanee College and it was held on April the 17th.

Sewanee, who had been a strong contender for the championship of the South the previous year, was defeated by our boys as the final count showed Centre to be the victor by ten points. All our men showed up well in this meet, Gordy and Shadoan doing fine work in the weight events, Kimbel copping the distances, Mountjoy winning first place in some of the field events, and Berryman beating the best that Sewanee could offer in the dashes.

Our next trip was to Columbia, Missouri, where we engaged in a dual meet with the University of Missouri. Just a few days previous to the departure of the team Shadoan and Gordy, both of our weight men, were declared ineligible and it was impossible to develop any one who could replace them in the few remaining days. We were defeated by Missouri as we were able to make but nineteen points. Our inability to score more points was due, in a large measure, to the fact that we had so few men to carry the colors of the Gold and White.

On April 29th, Captain Kimbel, Mountjoy, Berryman and Robertson were sent as a relay team to take part in the Drake Relays held at Des Moines, Iowa.

These boys did themselves proud, winning their section of the College relay and incidentally helping to establish the fact that we had some men here at Centre who could step with the best of them upon the cinder track.

Our best showing of the year was made at the All-Southern meet held at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, the latter part of May. It was at this meet that "Uncle Dick Mountjoy" broke the jinx that had been following him all season, taking first place in the high-jump, by clearing the bar with ease at a height of 5 feet, 10 inches.

Berryman, the Kansas flash, in this meet, threw a scare into all the other sprinters, making Helm extend himself to the very limit in order to take first in the dashes. Berryman took third place in both the hundred and 220 yard dashes.

All of Centre's men placed in this meet as Robertson took fourth place in the quarter mile, while Kimbel finished third in the half. Our team finished in fourth place of all the Colleges represented, scoring a total of twelve points.

We closed our season with the State meet held at Lexington, Kentucky, the last week in May. It is true, we did not win the meet, although we took more first places than did our ancient rivals, Kentucky State. Here again we were sadly lacking in weight men, as Gordy and Shadoan were both still ineligible, and our men were unable to score any points in the weight events.

Mountjoy, Kimbel, Robertson and Berryman again demonstrated on this occasion that they were demons for work, as each turned in a day's performance that was terribly gruelling to all, and that tested their mettle as track men. Mountjoy took first place in the high-jump and pole-vault, second place in the high hurdles and also ran a beautiful quarter in the relay. Berryman took the number of the invincible Clair, in both the hundred and 220, and later proceeded to run away for his man in the relay as though the State man were tied. Robertson, after copping third place in the low-hurdles and second in the quarter, also ran a beautiful lap in the relay. Kimbel, who took first place in the mile and half mile, ran a strong quarter as anchor man on the relay team, breaking the tape almost a hundred yards ahead of the State man, who finished second. Our boys covered the distance in 3 minutes and 28 seconds, setting a new state record for the mile relay.

Kimbel lowered the state record in the mile, covering the distance in 4 minutes and 32 seconds.

It is true that State won the meet, but this year with Gordy and Shadoan again eligible and all of the old men back on the job working hard, we feel confident that we can bring home the bacon by defeating the Blue and White harriers when we meet them in the State meet this year.

BASEBALL

The baseball team of 1922 was seriously handicapped by having no coach. Early in the season however, Chick Murphy was elected captain and with the help of the other boys, was able to put a fair team on the field. An unsatisfactory schedule was arranged, six games being scheduled of which Centre won three and lost as many.

Five letter men from the 1921 team returned, consisting of Murphy right field, Green center field, Carter first base, Creagor catcher and Moran pitcher. The other men to make the team were Covington second base, Hunter short stop. Hayes left field, Lemon third base and Embrey pitcher.

The first game of the season was played with Transylvania. Embry pitched a good game and held the visitors to three runs while Centre amassed twelve. The Colonels dropped the next game to State. Covington hit the ball to all corners of the lot, however, the Wild Cats won 10-9. In a game with Morris Harvey, Centre was victorious 13-7. Hanover journeyed to Danville next and after the smoke of the battle had cleared Centre emerged victorious 23-12. The game was featured by the slugging of both teams. The next two games ended disastrously for Centre. Transylvania gained revenge the second game with the Colonels in a close contest by defeating them 7-5, and State added insult to injury by running over Centre in a return game.

The Alumni of Centre got together a team for the Carnival game but were handed an 11-4 defeat by the regulars.

TENNIS

Although Tennis is a minor sport it deserves mention because of the creditable showing made by the team during the past year. In the four matches played, Centre won two losing one to Berea and treading the fourth with Maryville.

Pistal Green captain of the tennis team could always be depended on to win. Dunny the reason he never lost a match. The other members on the team were Dooley, J. Hunter, W. Hunter, and Moss. It might be added that in the two matches played with State, Centre emerged victorious in both.

THINK OF PLUGGING

If you think you are beaten, you are,
If you think you dare not, you don't;
If you like to win, but think you can't,
It's almost a cinch you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you're lost;
For out of the world we find
Success begins with a fellow's will,
It's all in the state of the mind.—Ex.

THE MYSTIC THREE

There are three words, the sweetest words
In all the human speech—
More sweet than all songs of birds, or pages poets preach.
This life may be a vale of tears.
A sad and dreary thing—
Three words and trouble disappears
And birds begin to sing.
Three words and all the roses bloom,
The sun begins to shine.
Three words will dissipate the gloom
And water turn to wine.
Three words and trouble disappears days—
"I love you?" Wrong, by heck!
It is another, sweeter phrase,
"Enclosed—find—check."

A CLOSE CALL

I slipped, I fell, I sat down hard;
I landed on my rear,
I cursed, I swore, I damned my luck,
My heart was filled with fear.

I felt, I looked, I felt again
I ceased to cuss and chafe;
I smiled, I grinned, I cried aloud,
"Thank God, the stuff is safe!"

Mother—There is something about our daughter that annoys me.

Dad—Yes, I see him.

Ruth—What did Wilbur do when Agnes wouldn't kiss him out on the lake last night?

Florence—He paddled her back.

Ruth—The rough thing!

It would be a great world if people put as much faith in a man as a woman puts in a safety pin.

A LUCKY MISS

I met a sweet young maiden,
Her name was Miss Primrose,
I paid a visit to her home
Dressed in my Sunday clothes.
Her young brother placed a tack
Upon a parlor chair,
'Twas I who was to be the goat
And gently sit down there;
But for some other reason
Another chair I chose,
And on that tack this maiden sat,
I'll say that Miss Primrose.

Prisoner—Thank you, Judge, for the sentence.
Judge—Why thank me? I gave you sixty days.
Prisoner—After I heard my lawyer speak I thought you would give me life.

They were adrift in an open boat. The waves ran mountain high. It seemed as if they were lost. Finally, one man fell upon his knees and began to pray. "O, Lord," he said, "I've been a hard drinker, but if my life is spared now I'll never again—
"Wait a minute, Jack," said the other, "don't go too far. I think I see a sail."

WHO WOULDN'T?

She thought the room was very hot,
And—so did I;
She thought the porch the coolest spot,
And—so did I;
So leaving all the frat-room glare,
Lights that shine and people's stare,
She wandered to a hammock there,
And—so did I.
She nestled in the cozy swing,
And—so did I;
She thought the moon the nicest thing,
And—so did I;
Her rosy lips were very near
As soft she murmured in my ear,
But presently they came too near,
And—SO DID I!

my work,
He restoreth by fright; he maketh me to recite

Yet, though I walk through a maze of names and dates,
I shall not get there, and many are with me;
His units and his standings, they worry me,
He giveth me a test in the presence of my class-

He useth no mercy; my grief runneth over.
Surely zaros and failures shall follow me all

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE

"George, darling, you do believe me when I tell you that you're the first man I ever kissed, don't you?"
"Yes, darling, I believe you."
"But, George, do you shave yourself?"
"Yes, dear."
"I thought so, it's the roughest—
And just then she fell from his knee to the floor with a sickening thud, as he made one dash for his cap.

IF SO THIS IS, WHY NOT?

I never go with college girls,
I never make a date,
I'm never fussing on the quad
Or saying, "Ain't love great?"
I never take one to a dance,
The reason's plain to see,
I never go with girls, because
The girls won't go with me.

I was going to buy a four-bit handkerchief, but decided that was too much to blow in.

Dumb—When you laugh, you show your teeth.
Dumber—Well, when you laugh, you show your ignorance.

"Concentration," said the stude, in answer to the Prof's question, "is sitting down at your desk with an open book before you, placing an eyeshade on your brow and trying to think where you can get a date for tomorrow night."

Her—Don't you think Gorma Nfish is just thrilling in "Wild Oats?"
Him—Yeh. That's her best cereal.

Of all the pests that walk the street,
The one I'd like to slay
Is the one who hollers across the street
"Hello, George, whaddy say?"

Another one I'd like to hit,
(I'd pack a nasty blow)
Is the bird that when he sees you, yells
"Hello, Bill, whattya know?"

Customer—But you advertised this suit for $30
—"Fire Sale Price."

Shutzbank—Ach. The paper must have made a mistake. The fire izzn't until next week!
