IN THE HEARTS OF AMERICAN YOUTH.

150 YEARS

*"There is a little college down in Kentucky that in its years of existence has turned out more men that have attained prominence than has Princeton in more than twice that length of time."
Woodrow Wilson*

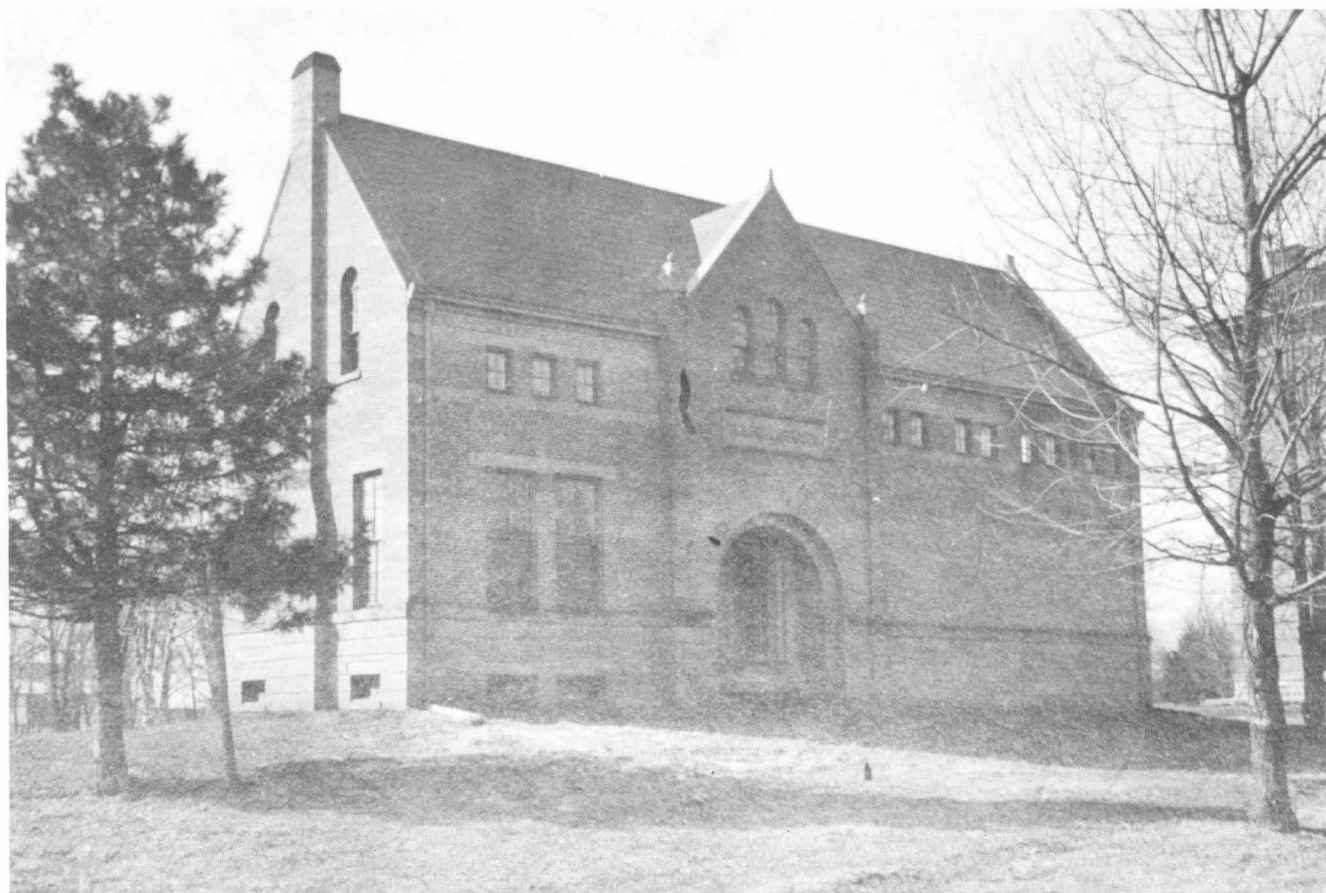

BRECKINRIDGE HALL

Completed in 1890, the east end of Breck Hall housed the offices of Administration and the departments of Modern Languages and Higher Mathematics; the west end was used for a dorm.

Sayre Library, built in 1895, contained the Central University library and temporarily housed the departments of Botany and Geology until the completion of a proposed science hall.

1820

Old Centre, the oldest building on campus, now serves as the Administration Building. It once housed three collegiate departments and the Law School of Central University.

Costly new biological equipment was set up in the basement of the Boyle-Humphrey Gymnasium until the zoology labs in the new Science building were made available.

"I would rather that a son or a friend of mine should enter a 'one-horse' college in the backwoods, where religious faith is recognized as a constructive force in society than to attend the most finely equipped university where imagination and esthetic feeling and musical taste and religious conviction are rubbed off and rubbed out by the daily attrition of a pseudo-democracy."

Kentucky College for Women

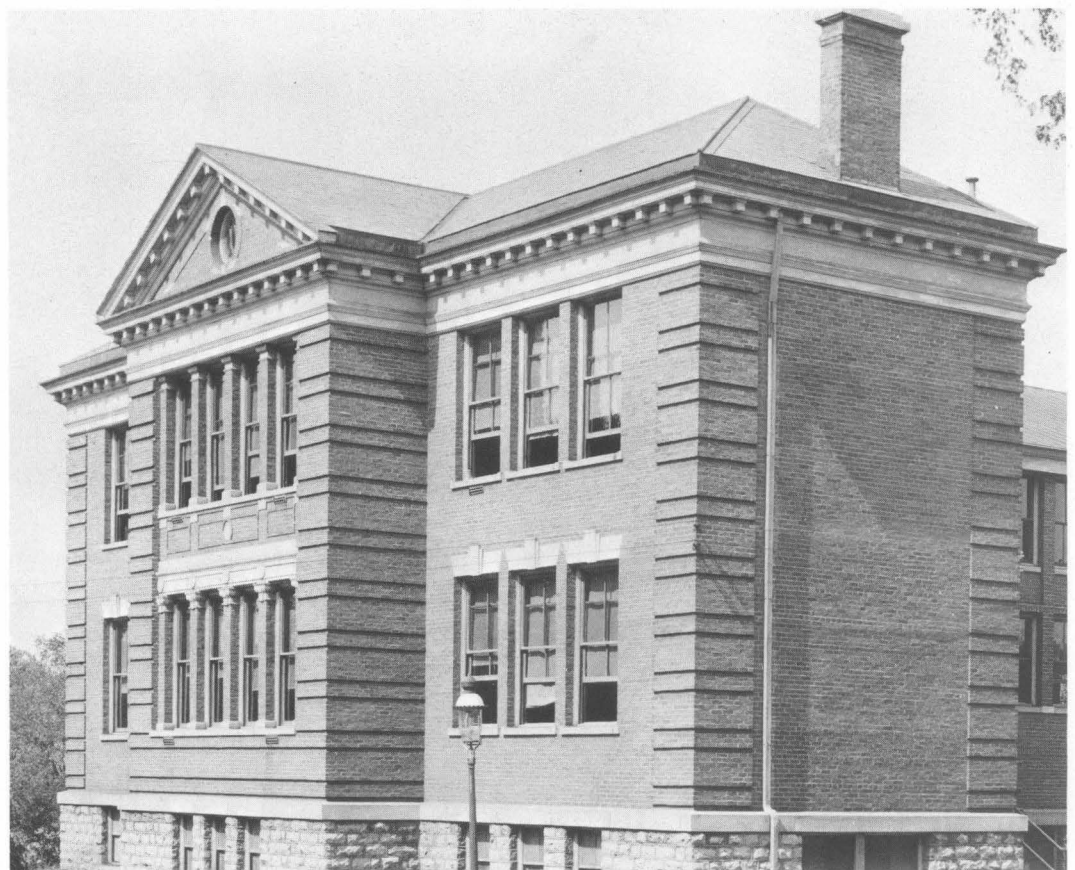

"The plan of co-ordinated colleges which Centre College and Kentucky College have adopted is recognized as avoiding the unnaturalness of an isolated woman's college and the familiarity of a co-educational institution. In work, separate; in play, together."

"Kentucky College for Women is a modern school for modern girls, but it holds fast to those ideals of Christian life and character without which education is an empty failure."

The dining room at K.C.W. was often used for such special occasions as the Valentine Dance.

The gymnasium building housed the only pool on the co-ordinated campuses and served as home for the art and music departments of K.C.W.

Centre — 6 Harvard — 0

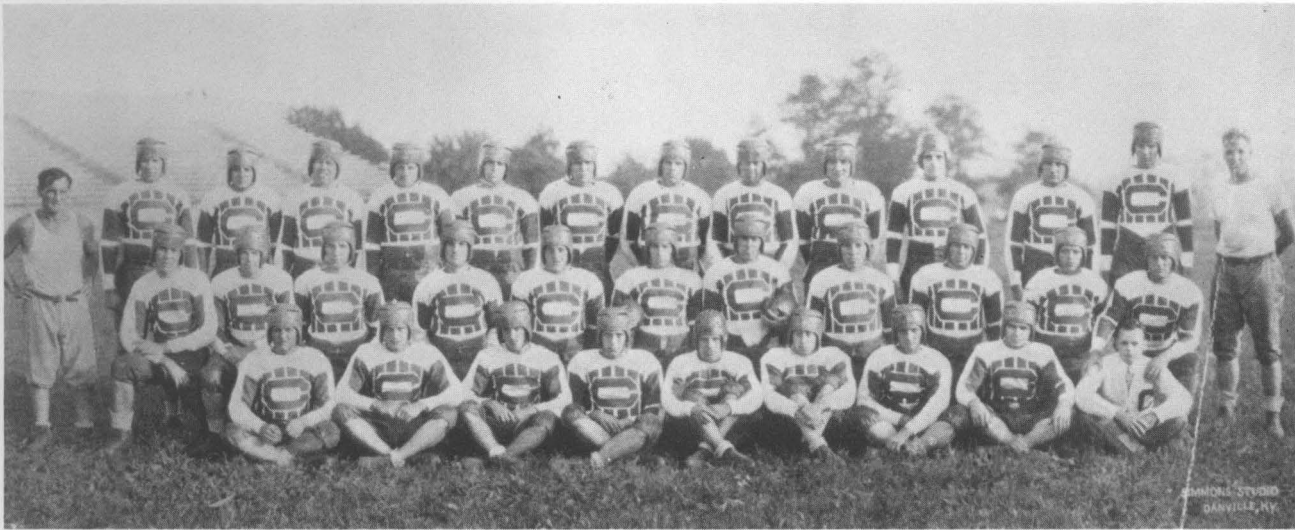

The 1921 football team members are grouped on the city fire truck receiving their home-coming welcome after the Harvard game. Perched on the high right is "Bo" McMillin, star of the team who scored the winning touchdown of the game. Captain Philip N. Armstrong is holding the game ball. Athletic director, "Chief" Myers has his face partially hidden by the steering wheel. Directly behind the "Chief" is Coach "Uncle Charlie" Moran.

"Night was settling over the great Harvard stadium. From sere field to saffron sky line, rising in row on row, forty-five thousand human beings sat in a tense silence. Lulled were the shouts that had lately been billowing across the field, where twenty-two moleskin-clad warriors were locked in combat. Every spectator knew that the climax of a dramatic event was impending.

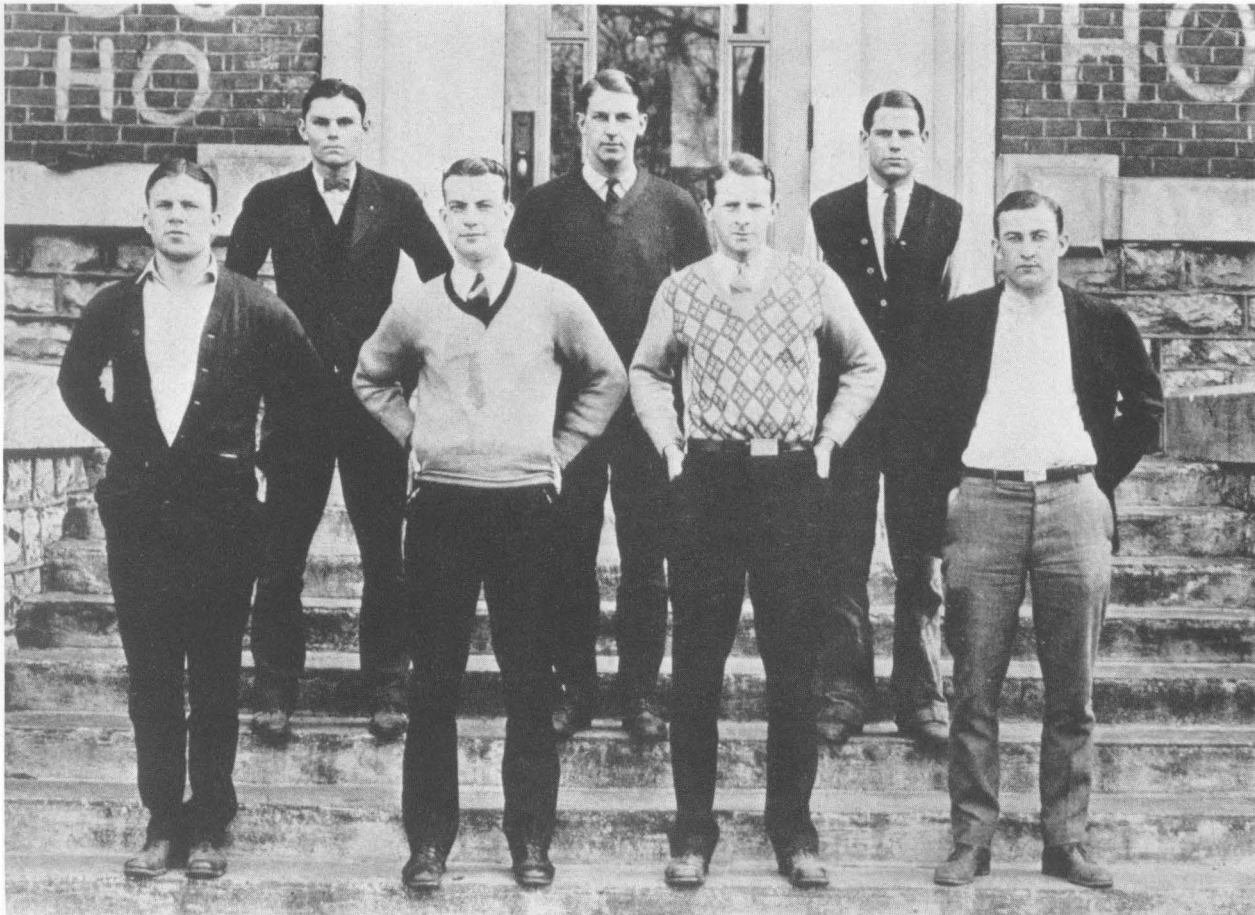

Between the rugged ranks of football players, set for fresh scrimmage, a man in white suddenly stepped. It was the referee. Scooping up the brown ball, he handed it to a player in dirt-daubed yellow jersey, who was about to bark a fresh signal. The game was over!

Then from the encircling stadium a mass of shouting, shoving humanity swept down on the field. Tossed to the shoulders of the fortunate few to reach him first, the player with the ball was borne to the exit gates in triumph!

In the wake of the procession trailed ten thousand jostling tribute payers, who had seen history in the making. For on that October afternoon, in the year of our Lord 1921, David had again conquered Goliath! . . . Centre had beaten Harvard! . . ."

Acknowledgments

Quotes in the sesquicentennial section by Woodrow Wilson and Dr. W.H.P. Faunce were taken from a 1929 Centre College information bulletin. The description of the Centre-Harvard game is quoted from an article that appeared in the February, 1922 issue of The American Magazine—"David Whips Goliath Again" by Merle Crowell. Many thanks to Mrs. Ruth Tucker and Mrs. Sabra Barbour for their help in gathering material for the 150 years section.

My deepest gratitude goes to Dr. Hughes, Mr. Tom Wilkins, Hunter Publishing Company representative; Jim Roberts and Mr. L. Without these four people this problem-plagued yearbook would NEVER have been published.
