

AFTER spending this year together at Centre, most of the student body feel that this is our school; that it is, perhaps, what we have made it. Though this is true in a sense, in our more realistic moments we know that we are only a brief happy chapter in a history which was rich in tradition when we arrived. We see that we are a link in the chain which will continue its successful evolution after our departure.

We can, however, feel a certain pride in remembering that this is the year in which Centre's ever developing tradition took a turn in a new direction. We will mark this in our memories as the year in which we embarked upon a new era. Full of decisions and new responsibilities, 1959-60 has become for us the year in which the transition of Centre's old traditions into more modern and even more successful ones was begun. It is with the hope of showing our conception of tradition in transition that the

ALTHOUGH Centre must change in many ways, there are aspects of its tradition which are permanent. For us at Centre there will always be dance weekends with blaring music, shuffling feet, and happy faces.

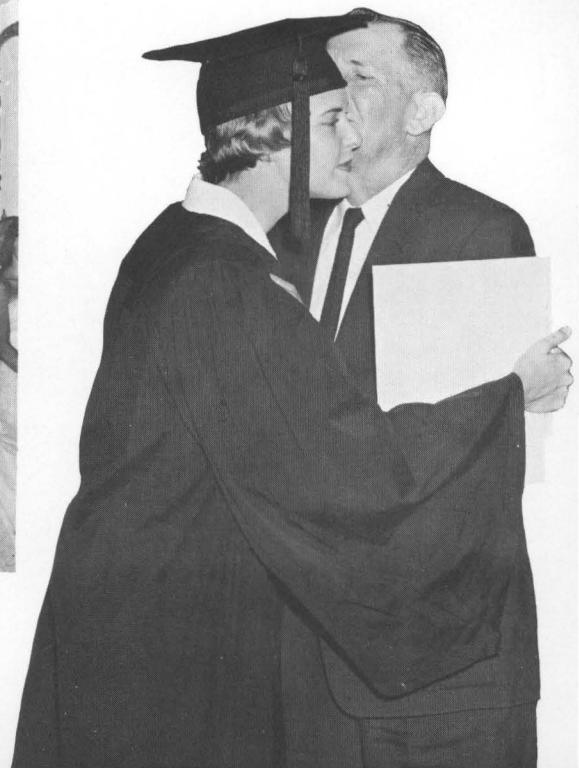

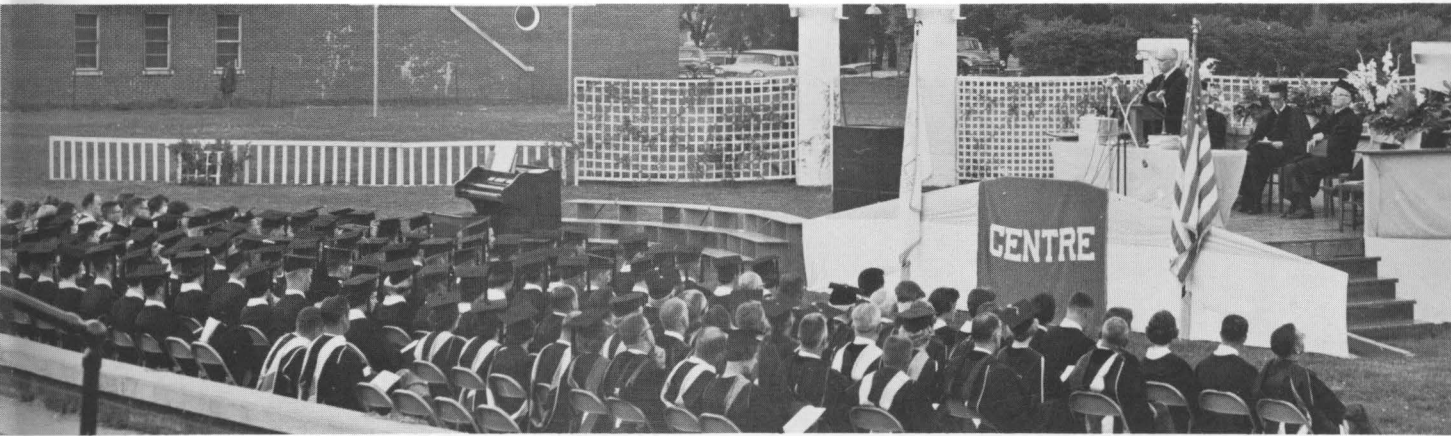

Homecoming will bring the old grads, a hard football game, and some freshly-shorn heads no matter what the year.

And there will always be "jam sessions" before tests and exams. Students will continue to crawl around in the stacks, sigh over a "C," and daily plod along.

In quiet moments we will turn to our chapel . . .

And in the spring, carnival, loud and gay, will continue to preface graduation, the solemn climax of four years at Centre.

SOME of the things we have come to know, however, must pass in the evolution of tradition. We realized this completely when, in the fall, President Spragens presented the plans for the new campus.

And we will be among the last to watch T.V. in East Hall parlor, to throw snowballs in the front yard,

We will be the last to share the friendly conversations and five minute naps on the buses that have, for years, taken us back and forth to classes. Very soon, the familiar shouts, "Move to the back of the bus!" will be forgotten.

and hear the formal serenades on the white-columned steps of Morgan Hall.

Just as K.C.W. will be a thing of the past, so will the old fraternity houses. For the last time we will party in the Phi Delt basement castle and in the rocking Red Barn. Soon the traditions of brotherhood will be resumed in new residences where we can reminisce of the "good old days."

As the college began its expansion and progression into a new phase of its history, we experienced many new things. We welcomed more freshmen in beanies and initiated them to the throes of registration lines.

We met the new Dean of the Chapel and applauded the eminent speakers who came to talk to the newly organized honors seminar.

And just as we looked in amazement at the plan for Centre College 1969, we watched the new Student Judiciary take shape and become a reality which will guard our newly acquired freedoms. As each new experience dawned upon us we became a part of Centre's expanding future.

BUT as we reminisce in the future about the old days, there will be many events that will make us smile again—things that were just ours in 1959-60.

We will remember this as the year of the big snow when icicles formed to decorate the dorms and hangout with sparkling light, and we slipped and slid to chapel in single file. We will laugh about waiting, snowbound, for the snow to melt and spring to come.

We will recall the W.S.C.'s spring preview of fashions at the style show, the half-completed term papers after the migration to Florida beaches, and the fabulous Brothers Four with their "Green Fields."

We will relive the sad and rainy days, the glad and sunny afternoons, the mistakes and triumphs that are ours alone. We will remember how we closed our books and faded into our summer places, promising to meet again and recreate 1959-60 at Centre College.

Student Faculty Congress

The Student Faculty Congress has a relatively short history which is rich in accomplishments. This year, in addition to its traditional functions, S.F.C. has developed some new policies which clearly mark a transition period in Centre's student government.

Among the first of S.F.C.'s traditional responsibilities this year was obtaining a band for the Homecoming Dance. Kai Winding was the choice of the Congress, and apparently of the crowd, because the dance was the most successful one there has been for years. Encouraged by their achievement, the Congress broke with tradition at Gardenia festival time. They provided the Brothers Four in a three hour concert at Jennie Rogers instead of the usual dance. In addition to these duties, the Congress was responsible for the Carnival Dance and commissioned a portrait of the late Dr. Knott to be hung in the new library.

As for innovations, early in the fall the S.F.C. revised the requirements for automobile registration to permit sophomores with a 3.0 average to have cars. The second major accomplishment of the S.F.C. was the execution of an idea which had been voted on by students in the spring of 1959—a student judiciary board. The details of operation were worked out, and at Thanksgiving time it was announced that the judiciary system and the newly adopted rules on drinking would go into effect after Christmas.

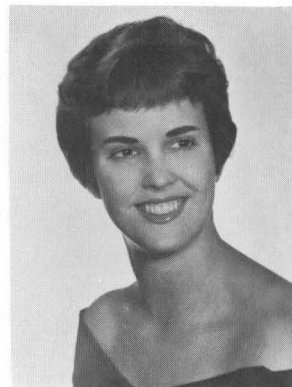

These innovations are the beginning of a new regime for Centre, for they focus responsibility for personal conduct on the individual and also provide for enforcement by students. The general opinion is that they have had a good beginning. But in an effort to more accurately determine the results, the Congress has appointed a three-member committee to work with Dr. Hornell Hart. They will poll students and evaluate their results.

Judiciary

The Student Judiciary is a new form of student government which was initiated at Centre College this year. The Judiciary is composed of two boards, the Men's Judicial Board and the Women's Judicial Board. The boards are each composed of a chairman, two seniors, two juniors, and a faculty advisor. There are eight lower councils consisting of the Women's Student Council, the Men's Dormitory Council, and one from each of the six fraternities. Each of the Councils has the responsibility to investigate reported offenses and to give penalties when guilt is established. The Council may refer serious cases to the appropriate Judicial Board if unable to reach a decision.

Every member of the student body, faculty, and administration has a personal responsibility to cooperate with the Student Judiciary in order for it to function properly.

It is hoped that the Student Judiciary will become an integral part of life at Centre College. Only with the help of all concerned will it prove successful in the years to come.

Women's Student Council

The year commenced by welcoming the freshmen and introducing them to Centre with the usual Orientation activities. There were explanatory meetings of various sorts concerning dorm rules, honor system, and the judicial system. Also, a pajama party was held in the Community Room.

When the Christmas season came, the women's student body entertained with the annual faculty buffet after which the dorms were opened to show the specially decorated halls. The Christmas dinner was held with each table competing for decoration prizes. Then there was the party which Santa visited when he treated all with gifts.

As spring approached, the Student Council sponsored the annual open house and, for the first time, the spring fashion show with student models.

Throughout the year the Council gained significance as the lower court of the newly formed judicial system. Also, it acted with increased responsibility in upholding dorm standards and regulations under the revised set of dormitory rules.

B. Koehler, H. Houck, J. Browning, S. Howell, D. Burgess.

JO BROWNING
President

Honor Code Committee

The Honor Code Committee is composed of a chairman elected by the Women's Student Body, and two members from each class appointed by the Women's Student Council. Each year the Honor Code Committee comes to school early in the fall and plans a coke party for the freshmen. Then the Committee gets down to serious business, planning the signing of the Honor Pledge by the new students. Later in the semester, at exam time, they give each woman student rules and information concerning the taking of exams. Each girl is placed on her honor, and it is up to her to take the responsibility of upholding the Honor System. The Honor System is not only applied to taking tests but to all dorm activities.

The purpose of the Politan organization is to promote closer relations between the girls living in town and the dorm girls. It is made up of all the Danville girls and married women students who wish to belong. The project for the year was to fix baskets for the needy at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Also a bridge party was given for some of the dorm girls who were guests of the Politan members. Judy McMakin served as President and Miss Sweeney as advisor.

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges

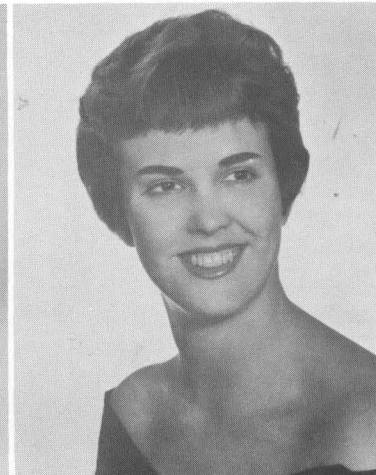

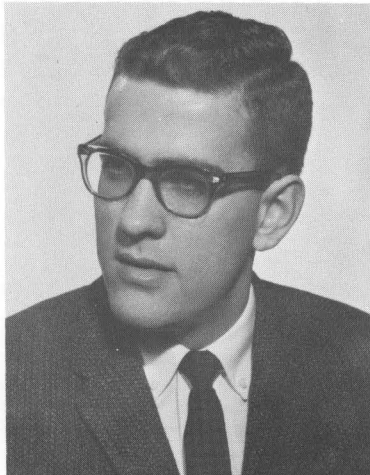

Six Centre students will appear in the annual publication of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. These students were selected for national recognition on the basis of scholarship, participation and leadership in activities, citizenship and service to the school. Each of them receives a certificate and may purchase a key and a copy of the publication. They assist the publication editors by filling out questionnaires which are used as an evaluation of college students' views.

Who's Who has been published since 1933-34. Aside from the recognition of outstanding students it provides an opportunity for employers to know students. Centre has participated since 1950.

Ye Round Table

"A little learning is a dangerous thing, Drink deep or taste not the Pierian Spring."

Ye Rounde Table is Centre's scholastic recognition organization. Membership is made up of students who after five semesters have attained a high point standing. This group meets monthly to present and discuss original papers written by the members. In recognition of the scholastic achievement of underclassmen, Ye Rounde Table presents each year a sophomore scholastic award to the highest ranking member of that class and a certificate of merit to the top ranking members of the freshman class. Those recognized this year were the following:

Omicron Delta Kappa

RICHARD NEISER
President

Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership fraternity, has a three-fold purpose. First, it is to recognize men who have attained a high standard of efficiency in college activities and to inspire others to strive for higher attainment. Second, it is to bring together the most representative men in all phases of college life and thus create an organization that will help mold the sentiment of the institution on questions of local and intercollegiate interest. Third, it is to bring together members of the faculty on a basis of mutual interest and understanding.

Centre's Zeta Circle, which has been active since 1921, had a practical endeavor as its project this year. The members evaluated the merits of the Slater Food System and discussed the weaknesses with the officials in an effort to make them aware of student complaints.

A second important activity of the circle was attendance at a Province conference in Detroit, April 1 and 2. Seven students and Dr. C. E. Heffelfinger participated in the discussion of several phases of the O.D.K. program, its activities and membership selection. A suggestion to issue a quarterly similar to Phi Beta Kappa quarterly was made by a member of Centre's delegation and was seriously discussed. The organization is also involved in a long range evaluation of school spirit at Centre.

The Centre College Chain Club was organized to honor those freshmen women who have been outstanding during their first year at Centre. A limited number are selected each year and are tapped at the Chain Club ceremonies at K.C.W. and again at the Spring Honors Convocation. Selection is made on the basis of character, leadership, sportsmanship, and activities. Chosen this year were Bonnie Kooken, Susanna Shumate, Janet Beckley, Judy Wurster, and Rita Loeser. Miss Sweeney is the faculty sponsor.

Obiter Scripter

Seated: Mr. Paul Cantrell, J. Gatliff, C. McDonald, A. Evans, K. Lively. Standing: B. Marcum, G. Rouff, Dr. Charles Hazelrigg.

Obiter Scripter, a campus group interested in creative writing, was founded in October of 1947, and its present constitution was adopted by the charter members. Each year since then the organization has stimulated creative writing on the campus in two ways: by providing a framework within which creative writing by the members may be presented, discussed, and criticized; and by publishing a yearly magazine, Obiter Scripta, in which the best manuscripts submitted during the year are printed.

A maximum of six men and six women are invited each year to participate; the men and women meet separately at the homes of the hosts, Professors Hazelrigg and Cantrell. Part of the nature and purpose of the group, according to its constitution, is not only to "stimulate original literary activity on the part of its members," but also to provide "good fellowship."

RANSIN MARYOHANNA
President

Forum is an international affairs discussion group. Its monthly meetings are held the first Tuesday of every month at the Evans House. Membership in Forum is voluntary. All meetings are open and visitors are welcome.

Ransin Maryohanna served as president of the group this year. Serving as secretary and treasurer were Linda Bowles and Eva Heflin.

Phi Beta Chi

Phi Beta Chi was founded in 1924 by a group of students and faculty in the departments of Science in Centre College. Their purpose in forming the group was to provide a means of exchange of ideas of current research in physics, biology, and chemistry and to bring together students and faculty for the discussion of a paper prepared by a student or faculty member on a subject assigned by the Program Committee.

The membership was restricted to students who were doing the major portion of their undergraduate work in physics, biology or chemistry and also who had achieved and maintained a certain scholastic standing in their major courses as well as in their total program in the College.

During the decade of the Thirties the group affiliated itself with a national organization known as Chi Beta Phi, which had similar aims. But after a few years the group of Centre College voted to withdraw because of the restrictions on eligibility for membership imposed by the national organization. It was agreed by the chapter at Centre College that the value of the local group to the student body was greater under the rules of the former group than under those of the national organization. Consequently, the local group rewrote the original constitution, devised an initiation ritual, and once again became known as Phi Beta Chi.

With the change came the election of students from the Women's Division of the College to membership in Phi Beta Chi and the admittance of the Department of Mathematics and its major students to the group.

Student National Education Association

The Jameson M. Jones Chapter of Student National Education Association held monthly meetings for the purpose of enlightening its members on the educational problems of the present. During the year S.N.E.A. had as its project tutoring some of the children from the Children's Home. This was not only very enjoyable but, also, good experience for future teachers. The year's activities were culminated by a banquet at Old Crow Inn, at which time the installation of the 1960-61 officers took place. Our advisers for the year were Miss Reeves and Mr. Inman.

Debate

Centre's debate team has had a long heritage as one of the finest in the Southern Conference of the Pi Kappa Delta National Forensic Society. In the past, the team, under the guidance of Dr. West Hill, has toured over the United States, spending Mardi Gras in New Orleans, and attending national tournaments in Chicago. In the past few years, however, it has suffered from low membership. Despite this, the team won the Kentucky State Debate Tournament in Berea last year. This year it participated only in the University of Kentucky Thoroughbred Tournament, and sent one member, Ed Morrow, to compete in the Regional Tournament. Although actual membership only included Gene Ruoff, Wilbur Settle, Ed Morrow, and Margaret Menges, there were indications of other interest.

In the spring, the group met several times to do extemporaneous speaking, and there is confidence that sufficient talent can be mustered for a strong fall team.

Centre Players is an organization on Centre's campus for those students interested and active in the theatre. In order to be eligible for active membership, a student must participate in at least one production a year. This participation may take the form of acting, stage management, back-stage work, props, or box office. The membership this year has been the largest in many years.

The year's activities culminate in the annual picnic-banquet which is held on the lawn outside the Fine Art Building. At this time, those actors who have participated in one play and are eligible for active membership are presented their keys, and the director's trophy is presented to that senior student whom the director believes has contributed most to the Player's group during his four years at Centre.

The club has chosen Mrs. Carlile Nichols for honorary membership this year because of her help with costumes during this season. Other honorary members of the group are the following: Dr. Vaughan, Mr. Cantrell, and Mr. Ensminger.

Olde Centre 1960

Linda Windrow, Jo Browning, Co-Editors;
Dick Neiser, Business Manager.

Eight months of procrastination, and one month of "blood, sweat and tears" have produced the OLDE CENTRE. But along with the long hours of typing, drawing layouts, arguing with the business manager, and slave-driving the staff, there was also the excitement of suddenly, after hours of thinking, coming up with a good idea, and the satisfaction of seeing that idea materialize and take its place in the book.

The theme of "tradition in transition" is skillfully introduced and developed by Betty Patton, Literary Editor, and Mary Ann Veirs, and it is beautifully complemented by the photography of Mr. Charles Thomas and Mr. Bob Walter. We have tried to raise the OLDE CENTRE to a higher level and make it more of a "college" annual by using the literary work of good writers to unify, explain, and complement the idea and the pictures.

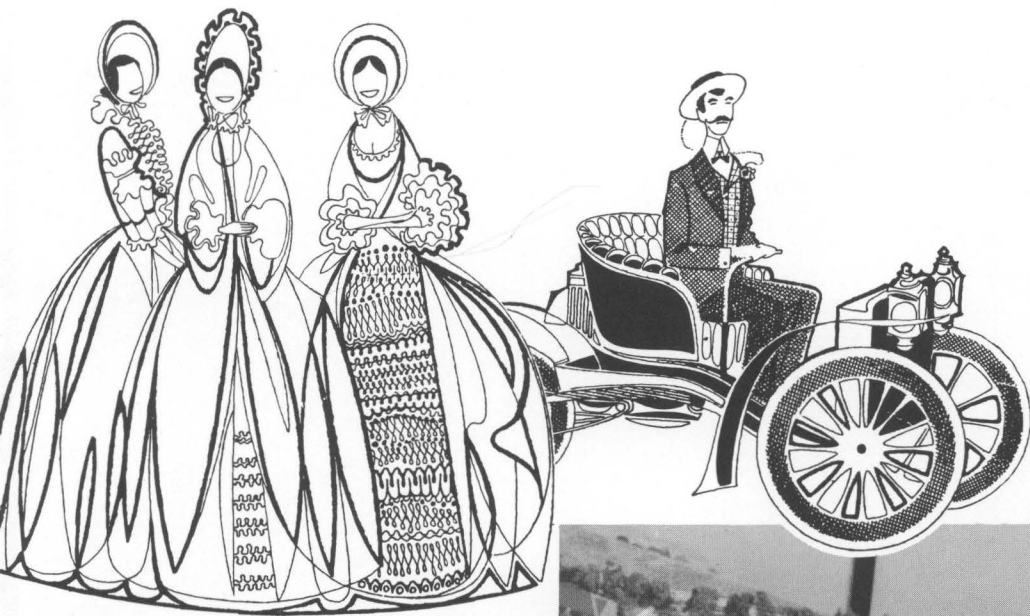

To the students, faculty, and friends of Centre College, we present the 1960 OLDE CENTRE.

Interfraternity Council

The Interfraternity Council is composed of two members from each of the six fraternities on campus. The purpose of the council is to promote the interest and general welfare of all fraternities; to strengthen the relationship between the fraternities and the college; to regulate the activities of the fraternities; and to contribute to the social life of the college.

Two of the social highlights of the past year were the two I.F.C. sponsored dances—the Christmas Dance and the Spring Formal.

Much time and effort was spent this year on problems which will arise when the fraternities move into their new housing facilities. Largely because of the I.F.C., this transition should be able to be made smoothly.

Beta Theta Pi

PRESIDENTS—Robin Bleakley, Steve McMurtry, Jim Vermillion.

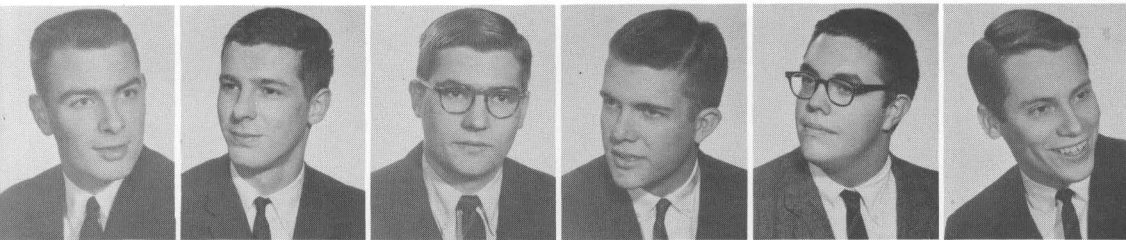

In September, 1959 the returning members of Beta Theta Pi faced the assignment of maintaining the fraternity as one of the best on campus. Under the able guidance of Jim Vermillion and Steve McMurtry, presidents for 1959-60, Epsilon attained a certain unity enabling us to pledge an excellent group of freshmen. We believe that within the sophomore and freshman classes a nucleus exists which will keep Epsilon in the forefront of fraternities on campus.

Beta has emphasized the social side of fraternity life this year. This year was by no means marked by boredom. We did not have a year of social sterility which can do so much to stultify the functions of a fraternity. However, we realize that a fraternity must be more than a social club and we are working to maintain our established position.

If we can produce from our present membership a considerable proportion of the participants and leaders in Centre's student organizations, maintain a high level of scholarship, continue the degree of social life we have achieved this year, and promote Epsilon nationally, we should emulate, even surpass, our excellent organization of 1959-60.

Delta Kappa Epsilon

PRESIDENTS—Bill Falkenburg, Jim Gay.

The Dekes began the year by getting the largest pledge class on campus, composed of twenty-three freshmen. Spurred by this initial success, the Dekes scored an undefeated season in basketball, which cinched the Intramural All-Sports Trophy. In addition, they "copped" the volleyball up and were in close contention in all other sports.

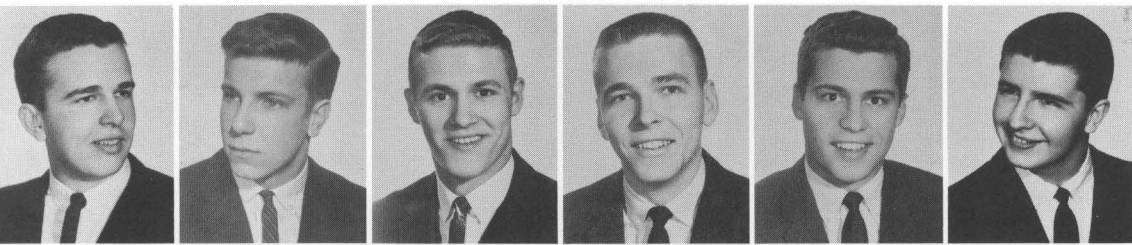

Socially, the season was also successful with such parties as the unbelievable "Training-Breaker," the "St. Patty's Day," and the "Old Grad" adding gaiety at the Red Barn. At the Spring Sing the Dekes topped off the ceremonies with a grand entrance by "Rip" in the role of Sebastian. Obviously, then, the Sing was a tremendous success.

In a more serious view, the Dekes engaged in several worthwhile projects. The first of these was restoring some of the paint to the walls of the lodge and repairing house furniture. The "restoration" of the Ephriam McDowell Monument produced praise from prominent Danville alumni as well as from the school administration.

The Dekes lost quite a few seniors at graduation ("Briar," "Rip," "Rube," and Youtsey, for example) whom the fraternity will certainly miss. But twelve of the new pledges have been initiated and Iota chapter should be able to continue its successes in 1960-61.

1959-60 was a tremendous year for Centre's Phis as forty-five members gained recognition in almost every field.

Fraternity organization found Harmon Person president for the first semester and Joe Patterson taking over that office in February. Under this able leadership the fraternity pledged seventeen rushees, and Bill Hall trained them for initiation. Twelve were initiated in the spring.

In intercollegiate sports the Phis continued to dominate the basketball roster. Joe Patterson (captain), Charlie Barbour, Harry Williams, and Tommy Hurt were starters and Dan Beineke, Bill Connell, and Charlie Blakemore played quite a bit of ball, too. Richard Dom, Tommy Hester and Bill Markham lettered in track while three of the first four golfers were Phis. Sam McNamara, Lyman Chipman, and Bill Hall led Centre to a successful golf season. Centre's left fielder, Robbie Robertson, is also a Phi.

In intramural sports the Phis finished a very close second over-all after winning for two consecutive years. The season found the football championship in Phi hands for the seventh consecutive year.

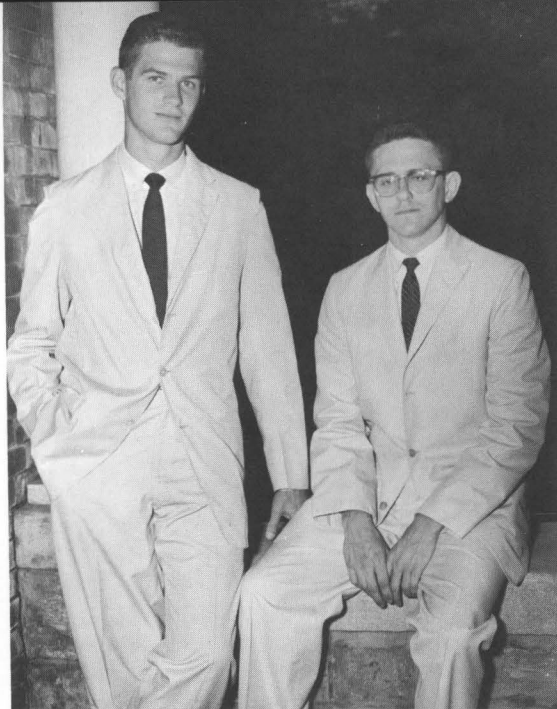

Honors came to the members from every group near the end of the school year. Rick Bourn, Bill Hall, Richard Wheeler, and Joe Patterson were initiated into O.D.K., and Richard Wheeler was elected president for the coming year. Dick Neiser was president during the year.

Joe Patterson was elected president of the I.F.C. in February.

Bill Markham and Gene Ruoff were elected to Obiter Scripta.

Rick Bourn, Bill Hall, Gene Ruoff, and Richard Wheeler were college marshals.

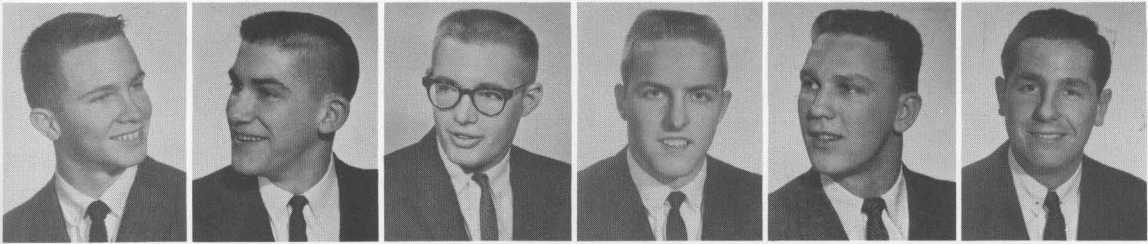

Richard Wheeler was elected to Ye Rounde Table and chosen president for the coming year. Harmon Person served as president of senior Pitkin. Rick Bourn will be president of Student Faculty Congress next year.

Phi Kappa Tau

Another year has finally come to an end. And Delta Chapter of the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity can now look back upon another swinging year of varied activities, ranging from the fun and carefree times spent in parties and social activities to the seriousness of study and service which all took place to a great degree throughout the scholastic year.

This year was kicked off by a series of informal parties and gatherings at the house. Combos blasted forth for participants of the Phi Tau parties, whose themes ran the gamut from Beatnik to Bermuda and from Italy to Hell. The weekends were well filled with entertainment for everyone and served to take one away from the drudgery of classes, which is so dominant in our minds throughout the weekdays. Delta Chapter owes much to housemother Mayme Amick, who has been with the chapter for longer than many of us can remember. Her services seem to be unending and are always performed with the type of attitude that can bring nothing but a warm smile from everyone concerned.

When the Bloodmobile made its annual trip to Centre College Phi Tau again did its share in the way of donations. For the second successive year Delta Chapter had the highest percentage donorship as compared with all other fraternities on campus. The small blood cup still stands on Phi Tau's mantle.

During the winter the Phi Taus got hopping on their annual community service program. The boys sold candy door-to-door and in the dorms in order to raise money for a charity donation. A seventy-five dollar check was presented to the Mary Hogsett School for Underprivileged Children. Also the chapter played host to the children of the school in a gala Christmas party just before the vacation.

All in all the year has been one to remember. It has been filled with the usual amount of success and failure that one would naturally expect. There seems to be nothing much to do but breathe a sigh of nostalgia when reading the annual and then settle down and look ahead to another year.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Kentucky Kappa Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon enjoyed a most profitable year. After taking Second Place in the House Decoration contest at Homecoming for the second year straight, we finally devised a decoration which won us first prize. Our entry was unique in the fact that, in addition to a colorful decoration, we also had music to provide a better background atmosphere. At Thanksgiving time we collected food from the townspeople which was then turned over to various needy families of Danville. Our representative at the Interfraternity Council Dance, Miss Sharon Hayes, was selected Queen of the dance. Bob Parman was elected our Eminent Archon for the following semester.

One main item on our second semester agenda was the Orphan's Easter Party preceding our Spring Vacation. It was hard to tell who really enjoyed themselves the most, the orphans or the brothers. The social highlight of the year was our Mardi Gras Party. A prize was awarded to the couple with the best costume. Brother Bob Jaclin and Marty Jackson, with their interpretation of how Mighty Mouse and his date should look, were the winners. The fraternity really lived up to its name, "The Singing Fraternity," by winning for the second year in succession the Spring Sing Trophy for the Best Vocalizing Fraternity on the campus. Miss Ty Caldwell was presented at the Spring Dance as our Sweetheart for next year.

In June, the fraternity will be losing eight graduating seniors whose presence will be sorely missed. However, with a fine nucleus coming back, under the leadership of Jim Stavros, our newly elected Eminent Archon, the chapter feels another profitable year is in store.

Sigma Chi

The Sigs ventured into the 1959-60 scholastic year under the watchful eyes of our new house-mother, Mrs. Hilda Hundley. She has done an excellent job, and we of Sigma Chi would like to express our sincere thanks.

In the fall, the Centre footballers were well represented with Sigs led by Little-All-American Mark Day. With so many of our men on the varsity, the intramural football team didn't fare too well. However, basketball and softball proved to be a different story. Our round-ballers ended the season with a 12-2 record and the annual Sharit Trophy. In softball we placed first with a 6-1 record, thanks to the pitching arm of Gene Tassie. As a result of our intramural participation, we finished third in total points.

Scholastically, we placed second for the first semester with a 2.31 average, and this second semester we contemplate an even higher average.

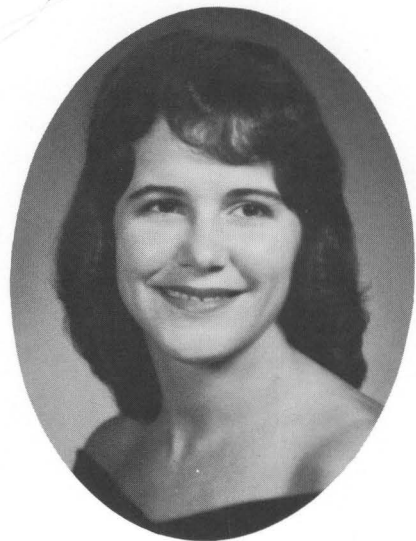

Flint Gray, I.F.C. and Phi Beta Chi President, was awarded first place in the Kentucky-Indiana Province for the L. G. Balfour Award. This award is given annually to the best all-around Sigma Chi in the nation. Virgil Chambers, Tom McGloshen, and Bob Eufer were campus leaders in their respective positions as presidents of The Student Judiciary, C.C.A. Cabinet, and Junior Pitkin. Gene Tassie, George Holeman and Duncan Marshall served as secretaries of The Student Judiciary, Phi Beta Chi and "C" Club respectively.

Our social life started swinging with the tranquil Carnations at the amazing Danville Country Club blow-out. This was followed by various and sundry combo parties, the quiescent Continental, and finally, the Honky-Tonk, at which the Carnations reappeared.

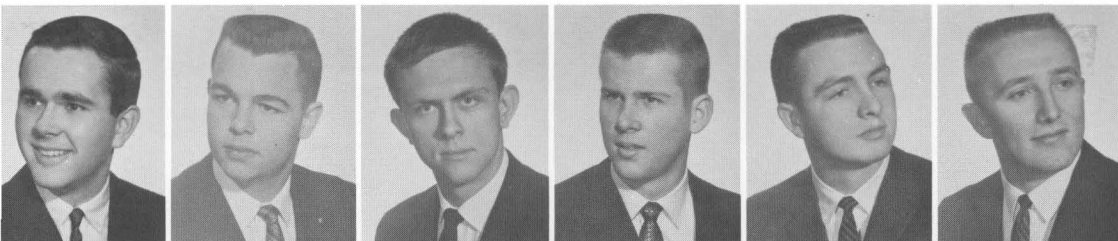

As the year passed on, snow-time-Sunday-night-fireside-parties drifted into campfire gatherings at the lake, and we terminated our social activity at the carnival to hail Mark as King.

The 1959 edition of the Centre College Colonels opened the season with only three lettermen and starters gone from the 1958 squad.

The Colonels opened the season against Wilmington and won 20-7. After the second period there wasn't any question as to who was the better team. Kern Alexander climaxed a 46 yard drive with a yard plunge into paydirt. Late in the third quarter Gene Tassie drove over from six yards out. McKee again converted and the score read 14-0. With 8:13 remaining to be played freshman full-back, Tom Milton, plunged over from the one. Late in the game Wilmington scored their lone tally on a 14 yard pass play.

It was "a bad day at Black Rock" in Lexington, Va. for the Colonels. The W&L Generals hit paydirt early, but Centre, showing a lot of drive and spirit, retaliated with a T.D. and a 2 point conversion effort. The remainder of the game was played on the Colonels' side of the 50 yard line as the Generals ground out 5 more touchdowns.

Below: Oh no! not again. . . .

The Colonels amassed 328 yards rushing and 18 first downs, which helped to bring home 3 T.D.s as the Maryville Scotties went down in defeat 23-6. Centre didn't waste any time. Led by quarterback Kern Alexander, the "Big Gold" scored twice in the first quarter, and were in no trouble the rest of the game.

In one of the most thrilling games of the year Centre, after holding a 20-7 halftime lead, saw it vanish and had to fight from behind for a hard earned 26-21 victory. Mark Day scored twice and Ray Kaelin once in the first half. Southwestern tallied in the 2nd quarter on a 67 yard pass play.

After a 3rd period T.D., the Lynx went ahead on an intercepted pass which set up their 3rd T.D. Centre finally went ahead late in the game when Alexander swept end from seven yards out on a keeper play which climaxed a 52 yard drive.

Centre's 5th game of the season ended in a tie with Hanover on a cold, wet October Saturday afternoon at Hanover. The Panthers had no trouble moving the ball in the 1st quarter as they marched for a tally and then in the middle of the second period scored again for a 14-0 lead. Late in the first half Centre started rolling and reached paydirt on an Alexander-to-Day pass covering 35 yards. The Colonels tied the score in the 3rd stanza when Alexander romped 40 yards.

Below: "We want a touchdown!"

A gloomy, cloudy day was the setting for the 1959 Homecoming contest, and the final score didn't make things any better as the Tigers of Sewanee and Centre fought to a scoreless deadlock.

Late in the game with only four minutes remaining a Colonel drive was stopped deep in Tiger territory, aided by a 5 yard delay of game penalty. A desperation 4th down field goal attempt by Jess Ellis was wide.

Completely outplayed and beaten statistic-wise, the Hampton-Sydney Tigers came from behind with only a few minutes remaining to score on an 80 yard drive. Centre had 355 yards rushing to Hampton-Sydney's 224 and also led in first downs 20-14.

In the last game of the season the Colonels played probably the biggest and best team all year. Emory and Henry came to town, having already defeated Washington and Lee and Hampton-Sydney, two Centre opponents. The "Big Gold," playing brilliant football, went in at halftime leading 21-6, completely outclassing Emory and Henry. An intercepted pass set up a touchdown for Emory and Henry early in the 3rd quarter, and with a two point conversion, made the score 21-14. Late in the 4th quarter, a Colonel drive was completely reversed when Barbrow of Emory and Henry intercepted a Centre lateral and raced 44 yards, untouched, for the touchdown. Again the two point conversion effort was successful and the game ended with Centre down one point, 22-21.

All in all, it was a heartbreaking season especially with the outcome of the last two games, but that's just football!

Kern Alexander, junior quarterback from Valley Station, Kentucky, and an end, Mark Day, a senior from Danville, made honorable mention All-American.

Playing their last season for the "Big Gold" were Don Huber, Norm Youtsey, Bill McKee, Virgil Chambers, Mark Day, Flint Gray, and Fleet Webb.

Although there were seven graduating seniors from this year's team, the prospects for the coming year seem very good.

Basketball

Coach Joe Brummett started the season with every letterman back from the previous season with the exception of All-K.I.A.C. Bill Kazee. Back from last year's squad were starters Joe Patterson, Steve McMurtry, Tom Hurt, John Helton, and George Rush for part of the year, in addition to a group of promising freshmen. The Colonels dropped out of the KIAC conference beginning with the 1959-60 academic year, thus playing only a twelve game schedule.

As usual, the team lacked height. Returning letterman and starter, George Rush, was only eligible for three games, and freshman center Charlie Barbour only played the 1st semester.

Freshman Harry Williams, a frequent starter, was high scorer in many games and shows considerable promise. John Helton, the team's leading scorer and co-captain along with Steve McMurtry will be lost through graduation.

Next season with the help of Joe Patterson and George Rush, and the added experience gained by the frosh, a better record should be posted.

Centre's 1960 baseball squad, under new head coach Joe Payne, posted a 10-5 record, a big improvement over last year's 5-9 record. Ronnie Simmons, back after a year's lay out, and Norman Youtsey shared pitching honors, with five victories each. George Rush, after a bad season last year, finished the campaign with a .393 batting average.

Included in two of the Colonels' losses were games played against the University of Kentucky, who finished in the first division of the SEC race.

Harley Veal, who took over at second base for the graduated Bill Kazez, and Robbie Robertson, a freshman from Paducah, both did a good job in their new positions. Robertson played shortstop in high school.

For the second straight year the Centre College Colonel's golf team posted a brilliant record. Back from the 1959 squad that paced Centre to a KIAC championship were the top three players: Sam McNamara and Duncan Marshall, and Kennie Simpson. The golfers showed quite a bit of depth when five of their top six players shot under 75 in one match this year. Coach Inman calls them "the best team I have coached since I've been at Centre."

Tennis

The Centre College tennis team posted one of their worst records in years with a relatively short schedule. Lost by graduation were KIAC double champ, John English, and also Bob Eveleth and Dave Ray. Bill Falkenburg, number one player last year, only played half the matches because of a leg operation, and Bob Travis, number two player was declared ineligible.

Graduating this year will be Larry Washington, Warren Grawemeyer, Steve McMurtry, and Dana Sulcer.
