

[...]the state exists to serve the individual by using its God-given authority to create an environment in which he is assured those

FREEDOMS NECESSARY TO WORK OUT HIS SALVATION,

for instance, freedom of speech and of religion, freedom from oppressive inequalities enforced by law, the freedom of fair trials, and freedom from unreasonable police searches.

letter to Kathleen Lilly, November 12, 1962