

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Coralville, Iowa – November 13th, 2020

Coralville Public Library Continues to Provide Services and Resources

The Coralville Public Library is temporarily discontinuing both browsing and computer lab appointments due to the current rise in cases of COVID-19 in the area.

The Library will continue to provide services, including wi-fi hotspot checkout, laptop checkout to Coralville residents, eMedia materials through OverDrive (Libby), RB Digital, TumbleBooks, and video streaming services through Kanopy. Access to online databases is also available. Individuals needing assistance with electronic resources should call the Library. No fines are currently being charged on materials other than laptops.

In addition, the Library is continuing to provide contactless curbside pick-up from noon until close every day as well as mailing services to library patrons. Reference services, virtual meeting spaces, and virtual programming, including story times and book groups, are being offered.

Please check www.coralvillepubliclibrary.org or follow the Library on social media for more details (www.facebook.com/coralvillepubliclibrary on Facebook or @CoralPubLibrary on Twitter). Library staff are available for assistance via phone or email during the following hours:
