OU PRESIDENT TO SPEAK HERE

Dr. Kirk Naylor, president of the University of Omaha, will address a convocation Wednesday, November 29, in the north amphitheater.

He will discuss the proposed merger of the University of Omaha with the University of Nebraska.

Omahans will vote on the merger at an election on Tuesday, December 12.

The convocation will be at 1 p.m.

Insurance problems of professional persons will be discussed at a convocation Wednesday, November 15.

The speaker will be Dr. Curtis M. Elliott, professor of economics and insurance on the University campus in Lincoln. The convocation will be at 1 p.m. in the north amphitheater.

Among other convocation speakers scheduled later in the academic year are Governor Norbert Tiemann and George Kelly, defensive line coach of the Cornhuskers.
