

for ten years. He is the grandfather of ten fine children. Dr. Seerley recently visited him at Charlotte, N. C.

Franklin E. Barnes has been a dry goods merchant at Winchester, Mass., for the past twenty-five years. He has taught in the Sunday School of his church for twenty years and has been a Deacon of the Church as well as Treasurer.

1895 Irving Cobleigh teaches in New Haven, Connecticut, at the Commercial High School. He does manage to get to his home in East Haddam week ends.

L. S. Austin has for the past thirty-five years served in the Telegraph Department of the Erie Railroad, the last six of which he acted as Assistant Superintendent of Telegraph. He is planning to return for Commencement, the Fortieth Anniversary for his class.

The Reunion Committee of this class is composed of Ernest Mogge, Frank Merrill and Dr. Chester McGown.

1898 C. E. A. Heywood is serving as a member of the Tax Relief Committee for the city of Ansonia, Conn.

Joe Goodhue has served as President of the Chamber of Commerce at Leominster, Mass., for several years. He is also Vice President of the Sportsmen's Association of that city. He is now putting two of his sons through college; one of them is attending Springfield College.

Robert Ross has been on the staff of the Schenectady Emergency Relief Bureau since last April. He and Mrs. Ross are hoping to attend Commencement in June.

C. T. Booth
'00

1900 C. T. Booth is anticipating a good attendance of the boys of this class at Commencement when the Thirty-fifth Anniversary of the class will be recognized. C. T. is with the Equitable Life Insurance Company at Minneapolis. For the past three years he has been District Manager of this company.

Simoon Lester, since his retirement, has developed the Creative Wood Shop at Middlesex, New York, where he is engaged in making shuffleboard sets and furniture.

1901 Ralph and Mrs. Cheney were entertained at a dinner sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. at Springfield, Mass., at which over one hundred of their Springfield friends were on hand to greet them. Ralph told of the experiences encountered on the seven months' trip which he and Mrs. Cheney recently took around the world. He met and was entertained by many of the College Alumni. He also had the opportunity of visiting his daughter who is teaching in Oberlin College in China.

1902 Dr. George Cornell has given up his farm and is spending this winter at the Y.M.C.A. at Kingston, New York, assisting the staff there. His plans beyond May 1 are uncertain. He will appreciate any assistance in securing a position.

1903 Fred Metts is agent for the Rio Grande Valley Cypress Groves and is located at Houston, Texas. He is active in the Shrine organization in that city.

Dr. George Meylan conducts the White

Mountain Camp for boys and Camp Arcadia for girls located at Casco, Maine.

Bernard Joy is Director of the Community Centers under the Community Chest at Denver, Colorado.

John Scott
'04

1904 Friends of John Scott will be glad to see his picture in this issue. John is the General Agent of the Home Life Insurance Company at Brooklyn, New York, and has maintained an active relationship to the Y.M.C.A.s of Brooklyn, being a member of the Committee of Management at Brooklyn Central. He has also been a member of the Board of Education at Rockville Center, New York, his home for thirteen years. He served as President of the Board. During his term a high school and three grade schools were built. John is also active in the Kiwanis Club, serving on the Underprivileged Boys Work Committee.

1905 Guy Lowman is issuing the call to this class for its Thirtieth Anniversary this June.

1906 Lou Day had a son graduate from Trinity College last year. He has another son who is a sophomore in Buckley High School in Hartford. Lou is the agency manager of the Automobile Insurance Company and the Standard Fire Insurance Company at Hartford.

1908 Harper Prentice is rural mail carrier, farmer and an insurance agent at Berkshire, New York. The unemployment situation does not seem to have affected Harp. He is still active in his church and has been President of the High School Board for the past ten years, and Secretary and Treasurer of a local Athletic Association, Director of the Library Association, and was Chairman of the Building Committee of the Community Hall, of which he is a Director and Chairman of the Management Committee.

Brad Robbins recently had a son at Annapolis, where he was an honor student. Due to health conditions, however, he was not granted a commission and had to leave before graduation. While at Annapolis he was an outstanding member of the football team. Brad's daughter is teaching in the University of Hawaii.

An exhibition of the oil paintings of George Draper was recently held in the Atheneum at Westfield, Mass., for a period of three weeks and won much favorable comment.

1909 George Fleming will again entertain the International Y.M.C.A. Basketball Championship at the Y.M.C.A. at Williamsport, Pa., where he is Director of Physical Education.

Ed. Shaw organized and is administering two codes in Washington. He is Secretary of the General Retail Trade Code and the Retail Soled Fuel Code Authority, as well as being Secretary of the Retail Jewelry Code Authority for the District of Columbia. He is Director of the National Association of Retail Secretaries, a member of the American Trade Association Executives, and of the United States Chamber of Commerce. His oldest son, Edward Leslie, is now a student at Maryland University. The other son, Winthrop, is in Junior High School at Washington, D. C.

1910 The Silver Jubilee Class. "Fuzzy" the engineer, "all aboard for Springfield." Commencement dates June 14, 15 and 16. Baker, Brock, Brown, Eyman, Kingbury, Porter, Stearns and Fleming already on board.

1911 F. H. Zeller is doing a fine job as Editor of the Bulletin "Official Voice" of the Sloane House Y.M.C.A. in New York City.

James Summers has two candidates from his Physical Education School at Montevideo for Springfield College next fall and a third who hopes to come to Springfield in 1936. He writes "Our small school remains afloat after having passed through a severe storm. A new regulation became effective this year at the school by which a student will receive his diploma only after having completed the four years of study followed by a year of successful practical work in an association or other approved institution." Summers has applied for a furlough to begin next May. If it is granted he plans to visit Springfield at the Fiftieth Anniversary Commencement.

1913 Charles Line, when he is not acting as General Manager of the Better Brush Company at Palmer, Mass., has found time to act as Superintendent of his Sunday School, President of the Federated Men's Club of Protestant Churches, Chairman of the Court of Honor of the Boy Scouts of America, Secretary of the Rotary Club, Vice President of the Palmer Chamber of Commerce, Chairman of the local hospital Trustees, Member of the Republican Town Committee, Treasurer and Trustee of the local Public Library Association, and he also organized and for several years promoted a Business Men's Gym Class which met at the high school gymnasium. During these busy years he has also managed to raise four fine daughters, ranging in age from 12 to 19. Who can claim that our Alumni entering business are not rendering extensive and worthwhile service!

We are happy to congratulate Wilbur C. and Mrs. Batchelor on the birth of an eleven pound boy, Richard Lanckton, on February 7. Mrs. Batchelor was Elizabeth Stowell (formerly of Springfield).

1914 Robert Winn is giving illustrated lectures on "Indoor Sight-Seeing Trips Through Historic Boston."

1915 Len Houghton has summoned all the members of this class to return to the campus in June to celebrate the class' Twentieth Anniversary and the fiftieth of the college.

Erle Painter is the baseball trainer of the New York Yankees. His home is at Baldwin, Long Island.

George Henry Vinall passed away suddenly at his home in Portland, Maine, on February 12. He was 48 years old and had become one of Maine's best-known athletic directors and coaches. He has been Director of Physical Education at the Deering High School since 1924. Prior to coming to Springfield he had graduated from the University of Iowa in 1909. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Grace Vinall and two sons, George H., Jr., and Philip.