

Starlite Park-In To Open at Millett

The Starlite Park-In theater at Millett will open for the summer season Saturday night, featuring "Buck Privates Come Home," with Bud Abbott and Lou Costello.

The Starlite Park-In will operate on a Saturday night schedule only and it is planned to offer the best films available, according to the manager, C. M. Miller, who is also secretary of the American Educational Film society. Arthur Eiman is assistant manager.

Admission will be charged by the carload. The Starlite is able to accommodate 300 cars at one time.
