

November 28, 1989

Dear Grandfather,

In Lowell it is peaceful. I help mom to clean the house and cook food. I am going to school to learn how to speak English, read and write. The city has many cars, T.V., and all kinds of new things. Sometimes mom lets me go to the store. Mom lets me buy bread, hot dogs and candy. It is cold sometime. Sometime it is hot. Our country of Cambodia is different from Lowell. Sometimes I go fishing and I catch a lot of fish. I catch cat fish, carp fish, sun fish and sometime I catch turtles too. I love you very much.

Your grandson,
Bun Choeun Choeung