

Engaging Southeast Asian Families and Communities In Your Classroom

Saturday, November 2, 2019

OR

Saturday, December 7, 2019

9:00AM to 3:30PM

O'Leary Library, University of Massachusetts Lowell

61 Wilder Street, Lowell, MA

(free parking in Wilder Faculty/Staff Lot, 94 Wilder Street)

Register by Oct. 15 (for 11/2) or Nov. 19 (for 12/7)
at www.uml.edu/sea.

Check-in begins at 8:30AM

Lunch & light breakfast provided

$100 stipend for participation & up to 15 PDPs

About the workshop:

This workshop will focus on ways to increase engagement with Southeast Asian families and communities. Participants will gain a greater understanding of the diverse histories and cultures of Southeast Asia, increased knowledge of best practices in culturally relevant instruction, and awareness of how to engage Southeast Asian American families and communities using culturally appropriate pedagogy.

Resources & materials suitable for use in elementary to high school classrooms

For more information, please contact CAAS@uml.edu or call 978-934-4612

Presented by University of Massachusetts Lowell Center for Asian American Studies and the Tsongas Industrial History Center