

December 13, 1989

Dear Brother,

I miss you a lot my brother.
Why didn't you come to America?
Come and learn English and you can learn to drive. You could go to work and give the money to our mother.
She works hard now. When our mother gets old we can't take care of her. Maybe we can go to the store and buy her some rice and ham.
Our father is looking for a job.
It's hard to find one.

your brother,
Sony Phommara

