

are cutting our hair.

When the song is over we sit on the floor and pray to our mothers and fathers. The new husband gives his new wife a gold necklace and we will put our hands on a pillow and people at the wedding will all tie a string around our wrists. The people give money presents to the bride and groom. The bride and groom give some of the money back to the ~~sweet~~ bride's mother. The mother keeps some of the money. It is our custom.

Then we eat a lot of food and we dance. When the wedding is over the bride and groom help to clean the house whenever the wedding party is over. I am 13 years old now. I'll get married when I'm 20 years old and the girl maybe 18 years old I'll be much smarter then.
