

May 1, 1991

Dear Jay, Chris, and Jennifer,

I received your letter on April 10. I love that letter so much.

Jay, I'm doing well here. How are you? I'm playing basketball this spring. I played baseball too. Jay, are you playing basketball on a team? When you read the book, named "Headless Cupid" what did David hear strange noises from? Is the book really dull at the beginning?

Chris, I'm starting by answering your question, "Do you play basketball on a team?" I have to tell you the truth I haven't but I did play baseball on a team last year. The second question is "Who is your favorite basketball player?" Well, my favorite,