Angkor Dance Troupe Policies and Procedures

To: All dancers and staff

Fm: Tim Thou, Phousita Huy and Dr. George Chigas

Re: Contract concerning appropriate behavior during troupe rehearsals and other operations

Date: October 1, 2002

These rules have been developed for your safety and to ensure that we use our facility properly and respectfully. All dancers and staff must sign and return this contract.

Safety

- STAIRWELL – At no time, should any dancers lean over the stairway railing on the second or third floor stairwell. This is a very important safety rule. If you are seen hanging over the railing, you will be issued a verbal warning, and a written record will be made in the office. Repeat offenders will be suspended from the program.
- STRANGERS – If you see someone walking through the halls or rehearsal rooms that you do not recognize as a member or family member of a troupe dancer, notify an adult staff person at once. Adult staff will inquire about the nature of the visit, and if appropriate, have the guest sign in and receive a guest pass.
- FIRE ALARMS – If a fire alarm goes off, immediately leave the rehearsal rooms and make your way down the stairs. Use the buddy system – leave the building with at least one other person from the troupe. Members will gather in front of the building until we are told it is safe to return. If the front of the building is also being evacuated, move over to Boarding House Park next to the building. Stay together as a group. DO NOT ASSUME IT IS A FALSE ALARM unless an adult staff member tells you so (Adult staff include Mehmed Ali who works in the office in the lobby and/or anyone in a Lowell National Park uniform.)

Building Policies

- FIRE/ELEVATOR ALARMS – Do not tamper with fire or elevator alarms unless there is an emergency. It is illegal to pull a fire alarm as a prank.
- COMMON AREA POLICY – Please be quiet and respectful when using the "common areas" of the building. These include the lobby, elevator, and stairways. Absolutely no yelling over the railings to someone upstairs or downstairs. No wrestling, pushing or otherwise rowdy behavior. There are offices and a museum exhibit on the first and second floor. We must not disturb our fellow tenants. If you are rehearsing in the third floor lobby, please close the doors to the stairwell.
- CLIMATE CONTROL – Thermostats should be set at 70 degrees at all times. Do not tamper with thermostats. Please report any concerns about excessive heat or air conditioning to an adult staff member right away.

Rehearsal Policies

- DRESS CODE – All dancers must adhere to our rehearsal dress code: K'ben and An Noy for girls and sweats for boys. No jeans are permitted.
- RESPECT – Be respectful at all times of master teachers and assistant instructors.
- LANGUAGE – No profanity (swearing) is allowed. No teasing, arguing, or otherwise "hurtful" language. Please treat your fellow dancers as you wish to be treated.
- DISCRIMINATION – No one will be discriminated against or in any way harassed on the basis of race, sex, age, or disability. Report violations at once to an adult staff member. We have a ZERO tolerance policy concerning discrimination.
- NO CELL PHONES – No cell phones are allowed in rehearsal rooms. You must turn off your cell phone during rehearsal.

ក្រុមចំរើស្ករ Angkor Dance Troupe, Inc.

- OTHER – You must inform your instructor if you need to leave a rehearsal room during rehearsal. Please minimize your "comings and goings." It is disruptive to our rehearsals if dancers are constantly leaving and re-entering.

ID Cards (Beginning November 2002)

- All members and staff will be issued laminated photo ID cards with a breakaway cord/lanyard to wear around their necks.
- Once you are issued an ID card, you must wear it at all times while at the troupe's headquarters at the Mogan Center and at performances – except when you are actually rehearsing or performing. Hooks will be installed in all of the rehearsal rooms so that you can remove your ID card while rehearsing, but you must wear your card whenever you leave a rehearsal room and use the halls.
- It is your responsibility to bring your ID card to every rehearsal. For your convenience, we will install a rack at the Mogan Center where you can leave your card between rehearsals. Anyone losing a card will be charged $4.00 for a replacement.

Guest Policy (Beginning October 2002)

- If current members have friends who may be interested in joining the troupe, members are welcome to bring a friend to a rehearsal as a guest ONE TIME ONLY. If the guest wishes to return, he or she must enroll.
- All guests must report to the office where they will sign in and be issued a guest pass. If you bring a guest, it is YOUR responsibility to escort your friend to the office to sign them in. If no staff is present in the office, please bring your guest to Ms. Phousita or one of the Assistant Instructors.
- If you bring a guest, you are responsible for supervising him/her and making sure he/she complies with all Angkor Dance Troupe policies regarding safety and proper use of our facility.
- If you see someone in the hall or third floor rooms who does not have a guest pass or member ID card, please inform a staff member or assistant instructor who will approach the guest and ask if they have signed in.

Media Policy

- If a newspaper photographer takes a photo that includes you during a performance or rehearsal and asks for your name for the photo caption, you must also say that you are a performer with the Angkor Dance Troupe.
