

Poster #4: Lowell Mill Girls - shows the young daughters of Yankee farmers, from all over New England, in Lowell. The girls came to Lowell to work in the mills. Their job was to convert raw cotton into beautiful calico cloth.

Poster #5: World Map - The countries/continents of the world from which different groups of people emigrated and finally settled in Lowell, Massachusetts.

Poster #6: Immigration to Lowell - A time line showing various Ethnic groups of people arriving in Lowell.

Poster #7: Why I Came To Lowell - Some of the reasons why the families of the Cambodian students settled in Lowell.

Poster #8: Lowell Today - A busy, bustling, multi-ethnic urban community. Compare poster #1 with the activity and diversity of people in poster #8.

Poster #9: Indian Children (Poem) - A poem which says it all. How Lowell has grown!