

January 10, 1990

Dear Brother,

In Lowell it is different from Cambodia. In Lowell we go to school by bus or cars. Lowell is a peaceful place - well, - some odd it is. In Lowell the houses are different from Cambodian houses. In Lowell it is now winter and it is cold. It is colder than Cambodia. The schools are taller. Some school have about three or four floors. In Lowell has a temple like Cambodian temple is big but the temple doesn't have the decoration we have in Cambodia. It has been many years since I saw you. I miss you.

Your brother,
Hol you

