

Chantha Yan

June 8, 1990

Cambodian Wedding Customs

When my brother want to marry my sister. My brother have to go and ask his mom if they could marry to each other. My mom said to my brother do you love her very much that you can not marry an other woman my brother said yes I love her very much my mom ask my sister. My mom said do you love Rith? YES I do love him. Can you please let us marry. My mother think for a moment. When my mother said yes my sister was happy. When Rith mother came to my sister house he ask my sister mother if he could marry my sister. And my sister mother said yes. My sister and my brother got marry that day. And the monk came and said good word to my sister and my brother. And the monk also said have a lot of babys. And live happily. That day my sister and my brother wear a pantaloons clothes.