

IMMIGRATION TO LOWELL

1860's - 1870's French Canadians

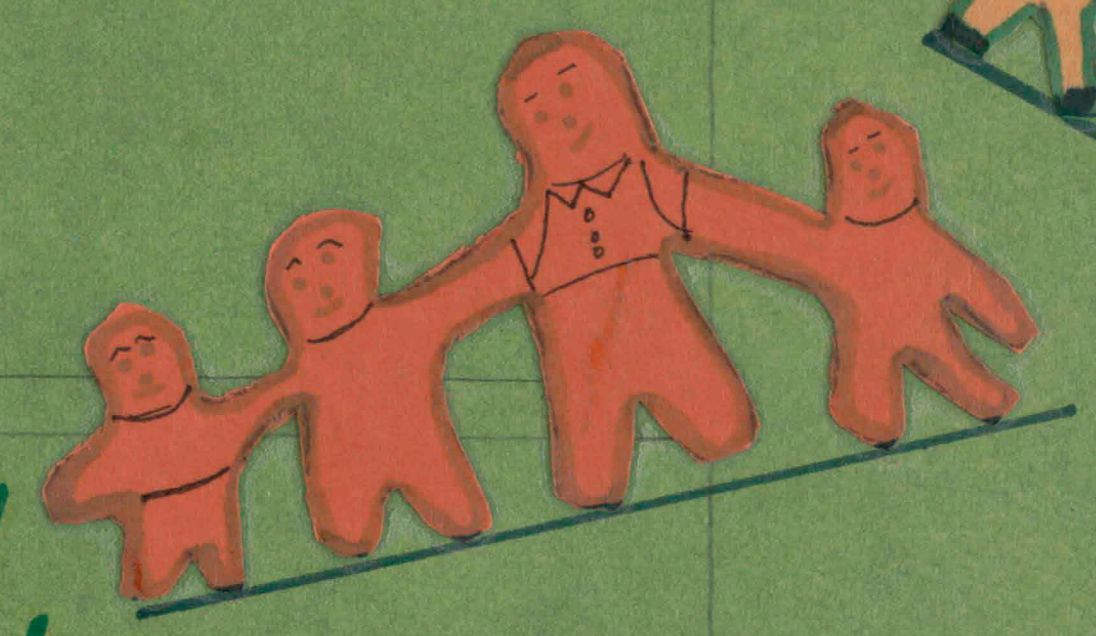

1880's - 1890's Greeks

1890-1910 European Jews, Poles, Finns,
Lithuanians and Russians

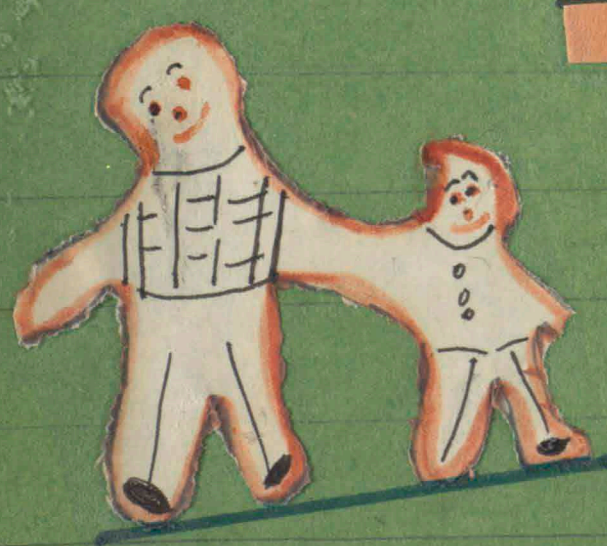

1900-1920's Portuguese

1945 on- Puerto Ricans ^{and other} Hispanics

1970's (late) South East Asians

After the Indians, English and Irish settled in Lowell, great waves of immigrants and other Americans (Puerto Ricans) were attracted to this area for various reasons: primarily, for employment (jobs) and to seek freedom from life threatening forces in their own countries.
