

Traditional Cambodian Weddings

When my sister getting marry my sister wear a Cambodian clothes. and my brother-in-law wear a different clothes and a different shoes. my sister and my brother have to wear a make-up to because they have to look nice. my sister have to put a flowers on her head. my mom said to every body in the house today we have to go to the chinees restaurant and we eat and we talk to each other my big brother said to my mom he said mother we have to dance because it almost time to go home. my sister and my brother dance.

Chantha yan