

March 27, 1990

How My Family Celebrates Cambodian New Year

When Cambodian New Year comes on April 13, 14 and 15 my family goes to the temple to pray to the monks. And then we celebrate Cambodian New Year. My mom gives the monk some candles and flowers. My brothers and my sisters and me go outside and we play tug-of-war games, and lots of other things. My mom said that we have to go home now and we go home and my grandmother says we have to go to your friend's house. When we go to my mom's friend's house my mom's says let's go to the park and play. My mom's friend said, "Oh that's a good idea!" And we go to the park. We have a lot of fun together. We bring lots of special foods to the park. We celebrate for 3 days.

Chantha Yan
Grade 6 1990