

We didn't have any furniture in our house — no table — no chairs — just mats and a small wood burning stove to cook on.

My mother also had cooking utensils like Pot, Pans, & dishes and & spoons, chopsticks but no forks.

It is the custom to sit in a circle on the floor to eat our meals in Cambodia.

We don't wear pajamas to sleep.

Mother, father and girls wear sarongs and boys wear shorts.

