

When my family escaped from Cambodia my father carried me and my brother in baskets. We were very young and scared. I remember the loud noise of the guns and missiles.

3/30/88

Saroun Bon