

Phay sam

June 5, 1990

Traditional Cambodian Weddings

First the groom have to come to house and ask my parent, My mother and father has to think about it. If the groom doesn't smart my mother does not let me get marry. And then my parent let me get marry. The groom mother has to buy a lot of food to the restaurant. And I wear pantaloon in my wrist and hel, and crown. And then every people come and eat drink beer. And I have to give some cigarette. And the person who come in they have to give bride and groom some money. and we have to kiss each other on the chin. And then in the morning groom have to go to brought so ring or necklace, clothe to wear. And about a few year bride and I have to please from my parent. The groom and bride has to come and visit their parent or the family. A few year we move to other state.