

Traditional Cambodian Weddings

When my mother got married she wear a Cambodian bride. We eat a Cambodian foods. I was very poor. My father wear a groom. It was nice. The monks came into my house. And sit behind the the wall. My grandma make a Cambodian foods for the people who came into my house.

All the children play a game. We play hide-and-seek outside. My mother and my father were in the house. My grandma were talking to her friends. My aunt and my uncle were cooking for me. My brother were walking with his friends and play a game. It was fun.
