

How My Family Celebrates Cambodian New year

Sometimes my family will sleep in the temple for one or two days when it is the New year. Many other families sleep in the temple too. The Temple is very big, the monks don't sleep with us. My Mother and other people cook the food in the kitchen and we eat sitting on mats on the floor. This is a very special holiday and I enjoy it very much. We pray for good luck.

Sopheak
yath
April 1990