

THE ENGLISH

EARLY SETTLERS

In the 1640's, the first white settlers in this area were English people. They chopped down trees to build homes. The English settlers grew their own food and raised animals for milk, eggs and meat. The sheep gave them wool which they wove into cloth to make clothing. The work was very difficult.

