Honorable James R. Jones
House Office Building
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Congressman Jones:

I am a housewife, but one who keeps up-to-date on what is happening to and in my beloved Country.

There are many things that are happening that I am most unhappy about. I will mention two of these.

One, the current Watergate Investigations is the biggest farce I have ever heard or seen.

Two and most important, the recognition of and diplomatic relations with the Peoples' Republic of China, which is now being established.

When men acquire offices by brute force and not by elections they are not representing the people of their country and therefore could not be a republic. Since this is the case of the so-called men now ruling China, I am disgusted to think that our President would plan to support them.

I would like to ask your help in stopping such action.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Judy Montgomery

Dear Mrs. Montgomery:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter concerning the Watergate investigation and the establishment of diplomatic relations with the People's Republic of China.

Only time will tell whether the Senate investigation of Watergate will have served a useful purpose. I have every confidence that these Senators will do all in their power to discover the truth in this matter.

I believe that you have no need to be concerned at the diplomatic contacts that have taken place between the United States and Communist China. These contacts in no way imply approval of China's government or of the individuals who hold power. Moreover, I can assure you that Congress and the Executive Branch would never compromise the position of the United States in world affairs simply to establish diplomatic relations with another country.

With best wishes,

JAMES R. JOENS
Member of Congress
