JAMES R. JONES, M.C.
WASHINGTON, D.C.

November 12, 1973

Mr. Peter W. Rodino
Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee
Washington, D. C.

Mr. Chairman:

We believe immediate proceedings to impeach President Nixon should be the first order of business.

What does it take to get to the last straw?

We are of the opinion that he cannot instill enough confidence in the citizens of the United States to head our Government for three more years.

Our problems are mounting daily and our only hope is that the Congress does have the power to take action.

very sincerely yours,

Ronald Paulfrey

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Paulfrey:

Your letter arrived while Congressman Jones is out of the country. As you may know, Mr. Jones was appointed to a special subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee to gather facts about the Middle East with which to report back to the House of Representatives. The Congressman is presently in Egypt and Israel.

I am taking the liberty of acknowledging receipt of your letter, and I will bring your correspondence to Congressman Jones' personal attention immediately upon his return to the United States in late November.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Kaplan
Legislative Assistant
