NOV 19 1973

November 13, 1973

The Honorable James R. Jones
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir;

I am a second year student at Oral Roberts University. Although my home is in Colorado, which I believe is a very beautiful state, I find Oklahoma, especially Tulsa and vicinity, to be an even better example of what America ought to be like today.

I think Oklahomans are more hardworking, more honest, and definitely more politically sane than anyone else.

Sir, since this Watergate business, most of America has been hearing a lot of doubts about our President's ability to run the country. The press has been excessively hard on the president. So have several otherwise intelligent politicians. I think this is unfair! President Nixon is in my opinion an excellent President and deserves to continue his term.

Mr Jones, I ask you to support the president in this time of crisis. I urge you not to join in with those calling for impeachment. I know you are a Democrat and that your party lines are in favor of getting Nixon out, but then you are also an Oklahoman, and I think that says even more. I know you must do what you think is right, but I ask that you remember all that the president has done for the United States in the past five years and take this in mind when the proceedings get serious. Thank you!

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Sain

Dear Mr. Sain:

Your letter arrived while Congressman Jones is out of the country. As you may know, Mr. Jones was appointed to a special subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee to gather facts about the Middle East with which to report back to the House of Representatives. The Congressman is presently in Egypt and Israel.

I am taking the liberty of acknowledging receipt of your letter, and I will bring your correspondence to Congressman Jones' personal attention immediately upon his return to the United States in late November.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Kaplan
Legislative Assistant
