Honorable James R. Jones
House of Representatives
Washington DC 20515

JAMES R. JONES, M.C.
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Dear Mr. Jones:

President Nixon must not be allowed to cajole this country into accepting HIS terms disavowing high crimes and misdemeanors.

Congress -- through impeachment -- must determine the truth.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Burnell:

Your letter arrived while Congressman Jones is out of the country. As you may know, Mr. Jones was appointed to a special subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee to gather facts about the Middle East with which to report back to the House of Representatives. The Congressman is presently in Egypt and Israel.

I am taking the liberty of acknowledging receipt of your letter, and I will bring your correspondence to Congressman Jones' personal attention immediately upon his return to the United States in late November.

Sincerely yours,
