JAMES
WASHINGTON, D.C.

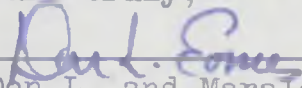

The Honorable James R. Jones
U. S. House of Representatives
House Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Congressman Jones:

This is just a brief letter to show our support for President Nixon. We believe he has shown great leadership as a President in winding down the Viet-nam war and has shown remarkable ability in International Diplomacy.

There are those who would like to see the downfall of the President for their own selfish reasons. We also believe the media has shown prejudice and bias in their reporting of Watergate related matters.

Yours truly,

Don L. and Maralea Eames

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Eames:

Your letter arrived while Congressman Jones is out of the country. As you may know, Mr. Jones was appointed to a special subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee to gather facts about the Middle East with which to report back to the House of Representatives. The Congressman is presently in Egypt and Israel.

I am taking the liberty of acknowledging receipt of your letter, and I will bring your correspondence to Congressman Jones' personal attention immediately upon his return to the United States in late November.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Kaplan
Legislative Assistant
