Dear Sir:

I am a Democrat, as were my parents and grandparents before me, but I am for President Nixon and I am sick and tired of Watergate. This talk of impeachment or resignation is destroying some great accomplishments.

Nothing that those stupid people who broke into Democratic Headquarters could have found, would be as damaging to the party as that farce of a convention that nominated McGovern.

I believe that history will show President Nixon as a great president.

Dear Mrs. Winget:

Your communication arrived while Congressman Jones is out of the country. As you may know, Mr. Jones was appointed to a special subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee to gather facts about the Middle East with which to report back to the House of Representatives. The Congressman is presently in Egypt and Israel.

I am taking the liberty of acknowledging receipt of your communication, and I will bring your correspondence to Congressman Jones' personal attention immediately upon his return to the United States in late November.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Kaplan
Legislative Assistant
