Honorable John N. "Happy" Camp
Congress of the United States
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Camp:

Enclosed are copies I should have sent long ago, of Articles appearing in local newspapers. I am like a lot of people, though, with whom I have talked from time to time -- too busy to get to things like this - even as important as the welfare of our country is.

We probably won't have to look at any more Watergate proceedings until after Christmas, thank Goodness! The people are so disgusted with the people parading before the TV cameras - and more disgusted with their callous disregard of what their actions in regard to Watergate is doing and has already done to our country. I heard one commentator on the radio make a statement as to the magnitude of the hurt this attack on the President has done - more than a combination of the Korean War, the Vietnam War, the Bay of Pigs - and a number of other tragic things (that have slipped away from me at this moment.) It's hard to imagine how these senators and others that have carried on this ridiculous thing can face their people back home, because I am sure they are not much different than the people in Oklahoma, and Oklahomans - those business people I have heard remark about it ( and that includes a great number) - would like to see them yanked out of the government, altogether and never have to see or hear of them again. - The idea that the people are so stupid as not to see through what they are trying to put over, - and after those horrible scenes the McGovern mobs made when the Republicans were trying to have a convention - and the vicious things they did everywhere. (After this, there are a lot of citizens who are saying they can't trust any politician).

I have intended to write Senator Bellmon and some others but I hope I can impose on you by asking you to pass these around to those you feel can do the most good with them. Having observed you in the Oklahoma House of Representatives, I am sure you will do all you can for the good of our country, and I think that includes doing what can be done to stop this vicious thing they call Watergate.

Thank you, and Best Wishes.

Sincerely,

Dora E. Holshouser

Pollsters Never See Fishermen

True Facts Unseen

TO THE EDITOR:

From what we read in liberal-slanted newspapers, hear over the three biased news TV networks, and learn from most newspaper columnists, all Nixon has done is plan and promote Watergate, cover up Watergate, fail to pay his income taxes and steal from the U.S. Treasury to improve his personal property. None of which has been proved as facts.

Here are the facts: Nixon has ended the Vietnam war, brought home our POWs, achieved higher employment with higher wages than any time in American history, expanded world trade thereby helping our economy while easing world tensions, made wise appointments to the Supreme Court for a fairer balance, reduced the crime rate by vigorously promoting law and order, abolished the draft, visited Russia and China in a friendly gesture to promote world peace, given back to the farmer his right to plant and reap with freedom.

If Kennedy had accomplished so much, there would be wild clamoring from TV commentators, news columnists and liberal leaders to start carving his image on Mount Rushmore.

Nixon has accomplished all this and they want to impeach him.

TO THE EDITOR:

Last week I sat on a little bridge fishing. There were three women in their late 50s, two other women—one around 25 and the other about 35, and three men past 60 years of age.

One of the men asked me what I thought of the Watergate case. I told him I thought it was a Dick Cavett-type spectacle crammed down our throats at a cost of $5 to 10 million and should have been left up to the Justice Department. This caused everyone to open up. The various statements were too varied and far too many to quote verbatim, but I want to make it clear they were extremely upset and angry. The gist of their feeling was that there is a conspiracy to get the President and defeat the wishes of the people as indicated in the election of President Nixon. Some said the President saved the lives of many of our boys by stopping the Vietnam war. Another chimed in with "and he had to battle Congress at the same time."

All of them felt the Watergate case was minor, compared to various incidents that happened before and in which Congress failed to take action.

A small group of people sitting on a bridge fishing would be the last place on earth that Gallup would poll. But I want to call attention to the fact that God gave them the senses and brains with which they can, in their own way, define the truth, in spite of the fact that TV, news media, and many of our people in the White House have distorted facts and made mountains out of mole hills.

I think it might be well to give an ear to the group fishing on a country bridge. There is unquestionably a conspiracy, behind the scenes, to impeach the president in spite of the mandate of the people and we don't like it.

Let's face it, justice has become a farce in America.

Who Pulls Strings?

TO THE EDITOR:

The Editorial, "Plotting a Catastrophe" is the best that I have ever read. I agree with every word of it.

I am a Democrat. But at present the party seems to have been taken over by a group of rabble-rousers. Their motto seems to be:

"Get Nixon at any cost—To Hell with Our Country." !!

They yell cover-up and cry impeach. The voices that are the loudest are those that are experts at cover-up.

Ted Kennedy did a good job of it a few years back. When Ted pulls the puppet string Archibald Cox jumps.

Sam Ervin and Daniel Inouye handled the shovel for Lyndon Johnson during the Bobby Baker cover-up.

Inouye should have been kicked off the Watergate committee when he publicly called a witness a liar.

There are others that I could name. Are we going to be taken in by locked tongues?

Dear Ms. Holshouser:

Many thanks for your very thoughtful letter expressing your deep concern about our country. I agree with many of the points you have made and am glad to have your views.

President Nixon has done an excellent job as Chief Executive and I have seen nothing which would warrant impeachment. I believe we should let our judicial system work as it has for the past two hundred years and the Congress should get on with the urgent business at hand.

As you requested, we are pleased to provide copies of your correspondence to Senators Bellmon and Bartlett of our State, and we have also shared your comments with Congressman John Jarman who represents much of Oklahoma City in Congress. I know they will be as impressed by your sincerity as I was.

Again, we thank you for writing and for your very kind comments on my work in government.

With kind regards and best wishes for a very happy holiday season, I am

Sincerely,

Happy Camp
Member of Congress
