Dear Congressman Camp:

The distress that I feel for our country at this time continues to deepen. The people that I talk to are so deeply disturbed that matters like this so called, "missing tapes" is greeted only with the deepest kind of scepticism.

As low as the implications are in the setting up of a special prosecutor independent of the executive branch, my feeling at this point is that this is the only way that any measure of confidence in Government can be restored. My sympathies and my prayers continue to be with you during this crisis time in our history.

Sincerely,

Lloyd A. Peters

Dear Congressman Camp:

I regret that you believe my wife and I to be prejudiced, over emotional, and irrational. It is distressing to feel that one cannot discuss his true feelings with his congressman because he has been prejudged in some matters.

Sincerely,

Dear Reverend Peters:

I appreciate greatly your expressing yourself to me as you have in your letter of November 2. We are always glad to hear from our constituency as to how they feel on issues that are presented to us here in Congress, and having had communication with the White House in the last two days, I am sure that the general public will be informed in the very near future as to the President's side of the story. I just hope that reporting of the news media will give the story as it is.

I need your prayers and would hope that you would continue praying for us during this time of crisis.

Sincerely,

Happy Camp
Member of Congress
