

Approach impeachment with caution.

There's too much strife between the Democrats and Republicans. Both parties need to do some cleaning up. The "pot calling the kettle black" won't get us out of this crisis.

Watergate has had too much emphasis already. Get on with the business at hand.

IMPEACHMENT

November 19, 1973

Mr. and Mrs. Montie Blakely

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Blakely:

Your letter arrived while Congressman Jones is out of the country. As you may know, Mr. Jones was appointed to a special subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee to gather facts about the Middle East with which to report back to the House of Representatives. The Congressman is presently in Egypt and Israel.

I am taking the liberty of acknowledging receipt of your letter, and I will bring your correspondence to Congressman Jones' personal attention immediately upon his return to the United States in late November.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Kaplan
Legislative Assistant
