Mr. S. D. Adams

Tulsa, Oklahoma

Dear Mr. Adams:

Your letter arrived while Congressman Jones is out of the country. As you may know, Mr. Jones was appointed to a special subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee to gather facts about the Middle East with which to report back to the House of Representatives. The Congressman is presently in Egypt and Israel.

I am taking the liberty of acknowledging receipt of your letter, and I will bring your correspondence to Congressman Jones' personal attention immediately upon his return to the United States in late November.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Kaplan
Legislative Assistant

JAMES R. JONES, M.C.
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Congressman James R. Jones
327 Cannon House Office Building
Washington D.C.

Dear Sir;

I am one democrat that voted for Richard Nixon. I am not ashamed of it today. The democrats had nothing to offer for the Presidency and I feel that I was doing the best for my country. I hate to think just what kind of a position this country would have been in if our candidate had been elected. Now that fifteen of twenty men tried to pull a fast one for their own aggrandizement our President is having to bear the burden. Yes he should have had better control of his 'eager beavers'.

Sam Ervin, with the committee investigating the watergate affair, is the most biaspeice of human flesh I have ever seen. That bible quoting phenoenon, he thinks, is a true citizen for retired senility. He might have been a judge one time but he isn't fit for a judge now. Judges can't be of his type and give equal rights to all citizens. He should have disqualified the Senator from Hawaii for his dirty remarks he made on television. Any judge would have been derelict in his duty in such a case.

He has done nothing that constitutes a charge of impeachment. That dirty impudent snob of a priest, who is a house member and filed the first charge of impeachment should have his evi-dense of male standing removed for cause. His antipathy for the rest of we voters and his anti-elitist position is most disgusting. He is the one who should be 'thrown out'. I hope that you will joan in with congress and stay any im-peachment proceedings that are brought up against the President.

Sincerely yours

S. D. Adams
