Mrs. King:

thanks for your communication concerning the rgate instance. I am sorry that I was not more ot in responding to your note, but we have ived a good many letters on this particular er, and I wanted to reply personally to each of King, I do feel that I am representing not only people of the Sixth Congressional District of noma, but the State of Oklahoma here in the ress. I think the Congress has always used very ent judgment in situations of this kind, and I eve it will continue to do so.

n, we appreciate having your expression on this e, and we would welcome your further comments at time.

Sincerely,

Happy Camp
Member of Congress
