Congressman James Jones
Washington, D. C.

JAMES R. JONES,
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Dear Mr. Jones:

You were elected to serve the people who voted for you and we are two of them.

We are sadly disappointed that you and our other representatives do not start something to help the President instead of sitting by and watching him being torn to bits by members of the Senate and Congress and mainly the press.

This country needs President Nixon worse at this time than ever before and you should exert every effort to see that he gets support.

Yours truly,

Mrs. & Mrs. G. T. Mulrenin
