Dear Mr. Jones:

JAMES R. JONES, M.
WASHINGTON, D.C.

I am a registered Republican,
and find no fault with the party.

However, if the president refuses to resign, then I say,
"Impeach."

At our house, we agree with Mrs. J. A. C., from Ada, Oklahoma.

She "tells it like it is."

All of us have had enough!

Yours truly,
Mrs. Robert G. Turner

The People Speak

Addresses Aid Protestor, Too

TO THE EDITOR:

Thank you for the addresses of our Sooner delegation on Capitol Hill.
We're writing them, each and every one, as you suggest, but not in defense of Nixon, as you want. We're not young, liberal, radical, nor connected with any labor organization, but we've had enough.

Our disenchantment with Mr. Nixon began way back when he had to cry on television and explain about Pat not having anything but a cloth coat, and he didn't know the $18,500 payment to him was out of line. He still doesn't know.

But we do, even though we thought perhaps last time he was a good boy
now and we voted for him.

And what's so wrong with our Carl Albert? Like Gov. Hall, we did not appreciate your front page innuen-dos.

Mrs. T. A. C.

At our house we agree with Mrs. TAC from Ada, Oklahoma (reference newspaper clipping attached to correspondence under : The people speak: Addresses Aid Protestors, Too). She "tells it like it is".

All of us have had enough!

Yours truly,

Mrs. Robert G. Turner

Dear Mrs. Turner:

Your letter arrived while Congressman Jones is out of the country. As you may know, Mr. Jones was appointed to a special subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee to gather facts about the Middle East with which to report back to the House of Representatives. The Congressman is presently in Egypt and Israel.

I am taking the liberty of acknowledging receipt of your letter, and I will bring your correspondence to Congressman Jones' personal attention immediately upon his return to the United States in late November.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Kaplan
Legislative Assistant
