JAMES R. JONES, M.C.
WASHINGTON, D.C.

The Honorable James R. Jones
327 Cannon House Office Bldg.
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Sir:

My wife and I listened with great interest to President Nixon's interview with the editors Saturday night. We were favorably impressed. For quite some time we have been sickened by the disproportionate time given the Watergate matter by our press and other media. We agree with Senator Aiken--either impeach the President or get off his back.

Sincerely,

November 23, 1973

Mr. G. R. Brainard, Jr.

Dear Mr. Brainard:

Your communication arrived while Congressman Jones is out of the country. As you may know, Mr. Jones was appointed to a special subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee to gather facts about the Middle East with which to report back to the House of Representatives. The Congressman is presently in Egypt and Israel.

I am taking the liberty of acknowledging receipt of your communication, and I will bring your correspondence to Congressman Jones' personal attention immediately upon his return to the United States in late November.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Kaplan
Legislative Assistant
