JAMES R. JONES
WASHINGTON

Rep. James R. Jones
The Capital
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Rep. Jones,

I have no complaints against the way you have conducted yourself in office so far, but I wish to register a vote of confidence in President Nixon. I cannot believe all these overwhelming figures we hear everyday on network television and in syndicated articles. Locally, I do not hear this discontentment. In fact, I know many people who are proud to have voted for Pres. Nixon and would do so again if they had the opportunity.

Mr. Cox has shown his prejudice now, so maybe his leaving was a good riddance. I believe a lot of people will be owing apologies to the President when this is all over.

Sincerely,

Edna A. Hoze

Dear Ms. Hoge:

Your letter arrived while Congressman Jones is out of the country. As you may know, Mr. Jones was appointed to a special subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee to gather facts about the Middle East with which to report back to the House of Representatives. The Congressman is presently in Egypt and Israel.

I am taking the liberty of acknowledging receipt of your letter, and I will bring your correspondence to Congressman Jones' personal attention immediately upon his return to the United States in late November.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Kaplan
Legislative Assistant
