

11/10/71 Approach impeachment with caution.

There's too much strife between the Democrats and Republicans. Both parties need to do some cleaning up.

The "pot calling the kettle black" won't get us out of this crisis.

Watergate has had too much emphasis already. Get on with the business at hand.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Blakely:

I want to thank you for your expression to me in your correspondence regarding the difficult issues facing our country today. I hope you will forgive the delay in my response, but I have been in the District during the Thanksgiving recess of Congress and only returned to the office this morning.

I agree with you. I believe we should let the judicial system work as it has for the past two hundred years and the Congress get on with the business at hand. We have too many important matters facing us in the House and the Senate to put anything but our primary responsibility of running the country in first place.

Again, we appreciate your taking the time to write and will welcome any further comments you may have.

Sincerely,

Happy Camp
Member of Congress
