Rep. John N. Camp, Sixth District
1406 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I urgently request that you do everything in your power to end this obsession with Watergate. Current problems need the attention of the President and the Congress. I feel that Watergate is a thing of the past, and it is in the hands of the Judiciary. I regret that money has been used for a special prosecutor.

In my opinion, more serious crimes are being committed by the media; that is, the trial and conviction by unknown accusers and without the rules of evidence being used.

The communist threat that they will conquer us from within seems more of a reality each day.

Sincerely yours,

Orinda D. Steward

Route 2, Box 153

Dear Mrs. Steward:

I agree with you. I believe we should let our judicial system work as it has for the past 200 years, and the Congress should get back to the business at hand.

bad reporting | As far as the news media is concerned, I believe as you do that the negative reporting we are receiving is not the true picture. I will go back to the old definition of freedom of the press -- that is, that it is their responsibility to present both sides of the question and then they have the right to do all the editorializing they wish on the editorial page.

Thank you for your expression and we hope you will feel free to contact us at any time.

Sincerely,

Happy Camp
Member of Congress
