Richard M. Nixon
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

We deeply appreciated your television appearance tonight, and admire your steadfastness in spite of unfairness and harassment directed against you.

And hooray for Senator Strom Thurmond! For his recent remarks to the Oklahoma press and television. And for his firm stand on the National Broadcasting Company's TODAY SHOW November 6.

It is vital to our nation that contrived attacks against the President, both the man and the office, be stemmed!

It is vital that the public brainwashing by the national news media, especially television, be halted!

How can this be achieved unless our elected representatives WAKE UP and SPEAK UP!? The situation is dire. The alternatives are deplorable.

Be encouraged! Not all of us have gone berserk!

With sincere regards,

Dear Mrs. Jones:

Your letter arrived while Congressman Jones is out of the country. As you may know, Mr. Jones was appointed to a special subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee to gather facts about the Middle East with which to report back to the House of Representatives. The Congressman is presently in Egypt and Israel.

I am taking the liberty of acknowledging receipt of your letter, and I will bring your correspondence to Congressman Jones' personal attention immediately upon his return to the United States in late November.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Kaplan
Staff Assistant
