Dear Mrs. J. R. Jones:

I am writing to let you know my feelings regarding the present situation in this country.

I would like to express my support for the Presidency. I am very tired of the press's handling of the whole affair. Much of the coverage was far from objective. It is important for this country that something is settled once and for all. Dragging the whole affair out will not help anything.

Sincerely,
Mrs. J. Daley

Dear Mrs. Daley:

Your letter arrived while Congressman Jones is out of the country. As you may know, Mr. Jones was appointed to a special subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee to gather facts about the Middle East with which to report back to the House of Representatives. The Congressman is presently in Egypt and Israel.

I am taking the liberty of acknowledging receipt of your letter, and I will bring your correspondence to Congressman Jones' personal attention immediately upon his return to the United States in late November.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Kaplan
Legislative Assistant
