JAMES H. HARRIS, M.D.
WASHINGTON, D.C.

James Louis
Member of Congress
House Office Bldg.
Washington D.C.

Dear Mr. Louis.

I am writing to urge you to support a bill of impeachment against President Nixon.

The office of the President has become so clouded with suspicion and loss of good faith that impeachment and a trial in the Senate offers the only opportunity for Mr. Nixon to vindicate himself and restore confidence in his fitness and ability to lead.

America has been through different times before and survived primarily because we were capable of facing our problems and acting to overcome them.

David H. Barber M.D.

Dear Mr. Jones,

I am writing to urge you to support a bill of impeachment against President Nixon.

The office of the President has become so clouded with suspicion and loss of good faith that impeachment and a trial in the Senate offers the only opportunity for Mr. Nixon to vindicate himself and restore confidence in his fitness and ability to lead.

Dear Dr. Barker:

Your letter arrived while Congressman Jones is out of the country. As you may know, Mr. Jones was appointed to a special subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee to gather facts about the Middle East with which to report back to the House of Representatives. The Congressman is presently in Egypt and Israel.

I am taking the liberty of acknowledging receipt of your letter, and I will bring your correspondence to Congressman Jones' personal attention immediately upon his return to the United States in late November.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Kaplan
Legislative Assistant
